THE MOST HOLY TRINITY
“But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth.” - Jn 16:13a

Blessing of Fathers
God and Father of all creation, we come before you today with humble hearts. You are our model of a loving father. When we fail and fall short of your expectations, you are always there at the end of the day with open arms, ready to heal the cuts and scrapes of the day and to encourage us to try again and not to give up.

We hold up these men in our midst who act in the world as fathers to their children or models of fathers for others.

Bless them in their moments of doubt and frustration with their children. Give them warm and open hearts to forgive failures. Provide them with the words needed for encouragement and perseverance. We ask all this in the name of Jesus.

Amen.
What is the Trinity Doctrine? In a nutshell, there is one God, eternally existing in three persons: Father, Son (Jesus Christ) and Holy Spirit. The three persons of the Godhead are co-equal and co-eternal as stated in Gen.1:26, Isaiah 9:6, Matthew 3:16-17; 28:19

Trinity Doctrine - How Can We Comprehend It?
The most difficult thing about the Trinity Doctrine is that there is no way to adequately explain it. The Trinity is a concept that is impossible for any human being to fully understand, let alone explain. God is infinitely higher than we are, therefore we should not expect to be able to fully understand Him. The Bible teaches that the Father is God (Exodus 3:14), that Jesus is God (John 8:58), and that the Holy Spirit is God (Acts 5:3-4). The Bible also teaches that there is only one God (Deuteronomy 6:4; James 2:19). How these two statements of doctrine can both be true is incomprehensible to the human mind. However, this doesn’t mean that they’re both not true.

Trinity Doctrine - No Illustration Is Completely Accurate
With respect to the Trinity Doctrine, none of the popular illustrations are completely accurate descriptions. The water illustration is somewhat the best, but still fails to adequately describe the Trinity. Liquid, vapor and ice are forms of water. The Father, Son and Holy Spirit are not forms of God, each of them is God. Saint Augustine, one of the greatest thinkers of the early church, described the Trinity as comparable to the three parts of an individual human being: mind, spirit, and will. They are three distinct aspects, yet they are inseparable and together constitute one unified human being. So, while these illustrations may give us a picture of the Trinity, the picture is not entirely accurate or complete. An infinite God cannot be fully described by a finite illustration.

About a century later, in 325, the Council of Nicaea set out to officially define the relationship of the Son to the Father, in response to the heresy of Arianism which denied the divinity of Christ. Led by Bishop Athanasius, the council established the doctrine of the Trinity as orthodox and condemned Arius' teaching that Christ was the first creation of God. Each time we celebrate our weekend Mass, we recite the Nicene Creed after the homily, as a profession of not only our belief and faith but also our understanding of who our God truly is for us all – A community of love between three equal yet distinct persons. It is that community of love that we try and emulate in this world.

Nicaea did not end the controversy, however. Debate over how the creed (especially the phrase "one substance") ought to be interpreted continued to rage for decades. One group advocated the doctrine that Christ was a "similar substance" (homoiousios) as the Father. But for the most part, the issue of the Trinity was settled at Nicaea and, by the fifth century, never again became a focus of serious controversy.

Most post-Nicene theological discussion of the Trinity consisted of attempts to understand and explain such a unique concept. Gregory of Nyssa, in his treatise, That There Are Not Three Gods, compared the divinity shared by the three persons of the Trinity to the common "humaness," or human nature, that is shared by individual human beings. (Ironically, this initially promising explanation has been seen by some to yield a conclusion quite opposite to the title of his work.)

Saint Augustine, one of the greatest thinkers of the early church, described the Trinity as comparable to the three parts of an individual human being: mind, spirit, and will. They are three distinct aspects, yet they are inseparable and together constitute one unified human being.

The Little Church Outside
Have you noticed the little church posted outside of the main entrance to the church? To celebrate the 175th Anniversary of the Milwaukee Archdiocese, one of the activities is walking different routes. St. Bruno Parish happens to be the last stop on the Blue Route. For more information on the walking/biking routes, go to archmil.org

The little church was decorated by the Bridge Family. They went out to the old St. Bruno’s to take pictures, and spent MANY hours creating the beautiful replica. Inside the church you can pick up a passport and stamp it (if you decide to walk the blue route). There is also a flyer with St. Bruno facts and history.

Here is some information on our flier:
St. Bruno Parish has been a fixture in the area since 1852. Our founding fathers, a group of German Catholics, settled here around 1841. The original church, constructed of logs was built in 1852. It was replaced by a brick church which still stands on Hwy 2 operating from 1887-1955. In 1956 St. Bruno Parish moved into the village of Dousman on the present site, and the school opened in 1961. The current church building was finished in 2005. St. Bruno Parish is one of the older parishes in the Archdiocese.

A people rooted in faith, St. Bruno Parish is very proud of the sons and daughters who answered the call to vocations. From this remote, rural parish, have come 7 priests, 5 Sisters, and 4 deacons. Of these 7 priests, most recent are our 3 Strand brothers: Fr. Luke Strand, Fr. Jacob Strand, and Fr. Vincent Strand.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

We believe in one God who is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The reality that God is three distinct Persons yet One is something that is difficult for the mind to grasp. But, understanding God in this way is not impossible for the contemplative heart. We need only to look around us to see our triune God playing and interplaying with all of creation with each of His Persons manifesting itself. God our Father abounds in and through creation. God the Son beats in every human heart, in love, in tendereness of mercy, and in our neighbor. God the Holy Spirit breathes life into all things and guides the course of me and may your heart contemplate His presence and glory.
