THE MOST HOLY BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST

Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. - Lk 9:16

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

When I was a child, I can remember stopping by my parish or another local Catholic church to just spend some time in prayer before the Holy Eucharist. We didn’t have exposition and adoration much in those days, but we were keenly aware of the presence of Jesus in the tabernacle. I would sometimes stare at the lighted candle near it and know that Jesus was alive.

I had never heard someone speak about a stewardship way of life back then. If I am honest, the primary message I heard in those days was along the lines of “We need to be as good as we are able.” Sacrifice was only at Lent, disciples were people in the Bible, and generosity mostly had to do with the collection basket and the poor box at the church entrance. I even went to Catholic schools!

Maybe the message of stewardship was there somewhere packaged differently, and I just missed it. It wasn’t until I was an adult, and after acquiring two theology degrees, that I understood both with my head and my heart what a stewardship way of life really meant. But I look back at those days, and I realize that the groundwork was laid for me to understand these things. It was really meant. But I look back at those days, and I realize that the presence of Jesus in the tabernacle. I would sometimes stare at the lighted candle near it and know that Jesus was alive.

Are you experiencing feelings of sadness and sorrow due to the loss of a loved one or do you know someone who is grieving? Grieving is very hard work, and time alone will not heal your grief. St. Bruno’s Circle of Life will host a series of grief support sessions on Tuesdays beginning June 4 through July 29, 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

These sessions will help with understanding the rhythms of the grieving process. Gathering with others who are dealing with the emotions of loss may be the first step needed to move toward healing. Whether you have had a loved one die recently or a while ago, you are welcome and encouraged to attend.

There is more information on the parish website, the kiosk in the Gathering Place or call Peggy Kneprath, 262-424-4567 or Sandy Mayernick, 262-968-4422.

TRAVEL
Prayer for Travelers
My holy Angel Guardian, ask the Lord to bless the journey which I undertake, that it may profit the health of my soul and body; that I may reach its end, and that, returning safe and sound, I may find my family in good health. Do thou guard, guide and preserve us. Amen.

Why do we do that?

CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question: How do you explain "Real Presence" to children.
Answer: The first Communion class is filled with excitement to the point of bursting! They are just awestruck by every new thing they learn about Jesus. Their enthusiasm is contagious as they rattle off the names of the things in church, the vessels and vestments used at Mass, and the names of their pastors and priests. Of course, they know Christ can do anything because he’s God. He comes to us in holy Communion because he loves us so much that he wants to be with us. And he comes to us in the form of bread and wine. We really receive him in the Eucharist.

Sometimes it is easier to explain this to children than to adults. Their faith and trust in Jesus is not limited by the questions and doubts that often come with the question of how he does it. Rather, they focus on the question "why," and the answer is something they can easily grasp: love. Christ wants to be with us because he loves us. Nothing is purer in truth or in faith. Not even the theological explanation of transubstantiation, or philosophical reasoning or symbolic references, come close. Christ takes on the form of bread and wine to be simple and approachable, so that no one is afraid or turned away. His love for us is complete and total. We try to love him the same way in return. For a child, it is simple. For us adults, we keep trying. "Unless you turn and become like children, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven" (Mt 18:3).

ST. BRUNO BOOK CLUB
All parishioners from St. Bruno and St. Paul are invited to join our group! We meet the second Tuesday of the month at St. Bruno’s at 9 AM in the Family Room.
The discussion of the book begins with prayer, coffee and snacks - a full stomach helps the brain! There is a discussion leader who provides information about the author and the book. All are free to share their comments, which always leads to an interesting conversation. The books vary from novels to fictional history to spiritual memoirs - a great variety! You don’t even have to read the book, just come for the conversation and sharing! It’s a great way to meet parish members, socialize and hear about interesting books. Come once, twice or whenever!

Next meeting of the Book Club Tuesday, July 9th: Universal Christ by Richard Rohr

Sharing the Gospel
For the Kids
- Keys are important. They open locked doors. They turn cars on and off. They protect your things, so no one takes what belongs to you. Imagine Peter’s surprise when Jesus gave him the keys to heaven! Peter understood that Jesus was the Savior. By sharing what he knew, Peter could open heaven to many people.

Prayer
- Jesus, help me to tell my friends that you are the Savior.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK
How can we ever succeed at truly loving God and our neighbor and fully embrace Gospel living? Achieving this goal without an intimate connection with Christ is impossible. The Eucharist, the Body and Blood of Christ, connects us with God in a unique and most intimate way. His very life and presence is wedded with ours. Being forgiven and nourished, we are given the strength and conviction to pick up our wounded and broken lives and be living heralds of Good News. Our world is broken and needs authentic, living witnesses to bring it back to truth. Nourished by the Body and Blood of Christ, are you ready to be sent?
