The next person he places in your path! Rejoice that you share in the mission of Christ, and keep on loving your neighbors, even our faith communities! Lest we feel unhappy, don’t carry it with you. Don’t let it overreason, they don’t receive it well. Sometimes people aren’t interested. Sometimes we want to help someone, but for whatever reason, they don’t accept it. So much of the love of Jesus was about relationships. He modeled this attitude by journeying with his disciples. Here he makes the same recommendation to us, to remain with the same family for their entire stay in the town. Break bread with others. Invite them to coffee or a game night in your home. Sharing your faith isn’t just about saying the right thing, but loving well over time.

“Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals.” We might not have a theology degree or training in public speaking, but that doesn’t mean we can’t share the Gospel. The power of God is at work in simplicity. The disciples went forth with nothing as a reminder to trust in the Providence of God. Say a little prayer that God will speak through you and has a need for your gifts, just as you are.

“Do not move about from one house to another.” So much of the life of Jesus was about relationships. He modeled this attitude by journeying with his disciples. Here he makes the same recommendation to them, to remain with the same family for their entire stay in the town. Break bread with others. Invite them to coffee or a game night in your home. Sharing your faith isn’t just about saying the right thing, but loving well over time.

“The dust of your town that clings to our feet, even that we shake off.” Sometimes we want to help someone, but for whatever reason, they don’t receive it well. Sometimes people aren’t interested in our efforts to invite them deeper into faith. When rejection happens, don’t carry it with you. Don’t let it over-burden your heart. Rejoice that you share in the mission of Christ, and keep on loving the next person he places in your path!

Catholic Quotes—Words to Inspire the Faithful

“In whatever direction we go, God is there before us, calling to us and coming to meet us.” | Henri de Lubac

St. Bruno Fr. Ralph Golf Classic—Saturday, August 10th Kettle Moraine Golf Course

You don’t have to be a great golfer to enjoy this fun golf scramble. This fundraising event raises money for St. Bruno Parish and our school tuition assistance program. You can register yourself or a foursome. Can’t participate but still want to contribute? Why not provide a cash sponsorship to cover some of the outing’s expenses. Visit our website, stbrunoparish.com/golf-outing for information, online registration, and sponsorships. Questions? Please email: stbrunogolf@gmail.com. Thanks for your support!

GIVING Online is available through We Share!

Visit our Parish website www.stbrunoparish.com and click the online GIVING box.

We are currently accepting registrations for the 2019-20 Faith Formation programs. All families currently enrolled have received a registration mailing. Registration information can also be found on the parish website and parish office. You can register by paper form and sending it with payment to St. Bruno OR you can register and pay online through the “We Share” program (found on our Parish website www.stbrunoparish.com)

High School Faith Formation registration will be all done online through the FACTS system, if you have children in both programs, you will need to register them separately. Please contact Amy Golden (Child Ministry), aldgolden@gmail.com or Jennifer Geisler (High School), jgeisler@stpaulgenesee.net

Understandings of Scripture

Our parishioners/families are able to find, FOR FREE, children’s movies, family movies, study guides, podcasts, downloadable books, and so much more.
consists of a three-step process of reflection. When the reflection is done with a group, the responses are shared by all the participants. Once the text is selected, it is read meditatively, and the following are then explored: a word or phrase that attracts you; how and where the content of this reading touches your life today; what you believe that God wants you to do during this coming week (month, year, lifetime).

Thanks to Benedict, the Christian community has been gifted with this special way of entering into the biblical text. This week, use the Lectio Divina process on one of the readings for the coming Sunday and make a note of the life connections you are making. How is this reflection on the biblical text drawing you closer to God and others?

ST. BRUNO BOOK CLUB

All parishioners from St. Bruno and St. Paul are invited to join our group! We meet the second Tuesday of the month at St. Bruno’s at 9 AM in the Family Room.

The discussion of the book begins with prayer, coffee and snacks - a full stomach helps the brain! There is a discussion leader who provides information about the author and the book. All are free to share their comments, which always leads to an interesting conversation. The books vary from novels to fictional history to spiritual memoirs - a great variety! You don’t even have to read the book, just come for the conversation and sharing! It’s a great way to meet parish members, socialize and hear about interesting books. Come once, twice or whenever!

Next meeting of the Book Club
Tuesday, July 9th: Universal Christ by Richard Rohr

Fans of Rohr’s earlier works will find a synthesis that reveals the most hopeful vision for humanity imaginable. Newcomers will be drawn to a science-friendly spirituality that feels both modern and timeless. All will value Rohr’s practical insights on mindfulness, prayer and enlightened social action.

Does your child need to be Baptized?
Please remember that all parents must attend a preparation class before their child can be baptized. If you need to attend a baptism class or need information regarding baptism, please call 262-965-2332 or email Mary Kral, marykral4@gmail.net

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
In the Gospel today we see how Jesus sent his Apostles out two by two. In this spirit, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul members “go out two by two” to visit those who are poor and needy in their homes. It is there, in the family setting, that Vincentians listen offer humble advice, and render assistance.

Know that the members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul bring your gift directly to the poor and suffering in our parish.

Sharing the Gospel For the Kids
Jesus sent out 72 of his followers to spread the good news about God. They were not to bring anything with them – no food, no extra clothes or shoes, not even money to spend. They were to visit strangers and completely depend on God to give them what they needed. That took a lot of faith!

Prayer
Dear God, help me to remember that you will give me what I need.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Jesus tells his disciples, “I am sending you like lambs among wolves.” Getting people to see the truth about who they are is not always easy or welcomed. Some people want to believe that they have life under control and they do not need any further advice, direction, or challenge from others. Being heralds of the Gospel means doing precisely that. We come with a message that is not always welcome or desired by our sisters and brothers. Yet, it is desperately needed. People need to be reminded of who they are, who God is, and the necessity of repentance for entering the Kingdom of God. It is not about what we want but what God wants.

We are called to be peacemakers and laborers for justice and mercy. Are you willing to bring this challenging message to those who may be indifferent or even hostile to hearing it?
