GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Loving isn’t too difficult, right? Many of us are surrounded by kind, lovely people trying to do the right thing. Indeed, to “love your neighbor as yourself!” seems like it should be easy enough. Treat people like you would like to be treated. Bring the new neighbors some baked goods (normal and gluten-free, just in case). Chat with the bank teller about his holiday weekend. Write an occasional card to your sister “just because.” There were probably varieties of these acts of kindness in Jesus’ day. Perhaps substituting figs for cookies. But “exchange pleasantries with the traveling cloth merchant” isn’t the example Jesus gives.

“A man fell victim to robbers... they stripped him and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead.” The righteous pass by the scene of the dying man. The hero of the story is the one on the margins of Jewish society, who perhaps would not have been welcomed, in other circumstances, by the man now in the ditch. His neighborly love causes him to halt his journey, to tend wounds, and to pay for the man’s care out of his own savings. Are we interruptible? Are we attentive to the hurts of others? Are we generous with our money and possessions?

In the past few weeks, who has crossed your mind as someone in need of help? Perhaps it’s an acquaintance suffering from cancer. Maybe you were invited to donate or volunteer to a local social cause, but it just won’t stick in your mind (or schedule) to make it happen. The needs of people are many and varied. We can’t help everyone, but God does place opportunities in our path for compassion and courageous love. This week, be “the one who treated him with mercy.”

~Fr. Dan

PLEAS NOTE:
There has been a number of parishioners who have received text messages from someone impersonating Fr. Dan asking for help, money and/or gift cards. Please do not respond to these texts.
Fr. Dan nor any Parish Staff member would ever use this means to solicit funds from any parishioner. Fr. Dan is in contact with and working with local law enforcement on this problem. If you receive a text or email message that is trying to solicit funds from you that is unknown to you, please contact the Summit Police Dept.

CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question: I’ve heard that faith is a theological virtue. What does that mean?

Answer: To say a virtue is theological means that it comes as a gift from God. St. Thomas Aquinas, a Dominican monk who crafted the famous arguments for the existence of God, wrote: "This alone is the true knowledge of God: to know that God is beyond knowing," God is transcendent. This word comes from the Latin “transcendere," meaning "to climb beyond." When something is transcendent, it exists beyond our normal range of experience. Philosopher Peter Kreeft put it simply: "God is always more."

While God created us in His image and likeness, too often we re-create Him in ours. We project our deepest hopes, our subliminal fears, and our hidden dreams, and conjure up our own image of what God could be. Yet God can never be limited to our own perception of Him.

That’s where faith comes in. We read in the Catechism that “faith is the theological virtue by which we believe in God and believe all that He has said and revealed to us and all that the Holy Church proposes for our belief” (CCC 1814). We can know God through reason, to a point. As human beings, we want to know and understand the world around us, but God isn’t in the world around us. He’s beyond it. The best way to come to know God is not through our own clever mental maneuvering, but through trusting in God’s revelation of Himself. We might think we know who God is, but the only way we can have any idea is if we trust, through the virtue of faith, who He has revealed Himself to be.

St. Bruno Book Club

All parishioners from St. Bruno and St. Paul are invited to join our group! We meet the second Tuesday of the month at St. Bruno’s at 9 AM in the Family Room. The discussion of the book begins with prayer, coffee and snacks - a full stomach helps the brain! There is a discussion leader who provides information about the author and the book. All are free to share their comments, which always lead to an interesting conversation. The books vary from novels to fictional history to spiritual to memoirs - a great variety! You don’t even have to read the book, just come for the conversation and sharing! It’s a great way to meet parish members, socialize and hear about interesting books. Come once, twice or whenever!

Next meeting of the Book Club Tuesday, August 13th: The Girl Who Wrote in Silk by Kelli Estes

Vibrant and tragic, this novel explores a horrific, little-known era in our nation’s history. Estes alternates between Mei Lien, a young Chinese American girl who lived in the late 1800’s, and Inara, a modern recent college grad who set Mei Lien’s story free. A testament to the endurance of the human spirit.

St. Vincent de Paul

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today’s Gospel, when Jesus asks “which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers’ victim?” the scholar of the law answered, “the one who treated him with mercy.” Jesus then said, “Go and do likewise.”

This week you can also “treat the poor with mercy” by putting a gift in the St. Vincent de Paul collection.

Sharing the Gospel for the Kids

Jesus wants you to love your neighbors. He wants you to help your neighbors. You could help the people who live next door, or the people that go to your church. But Jesus wants you to think bigger than that. Jesus wants you to help people all around the world - no matter where they live, and no matter what they believe

Prayer

Dear God, show me how to help others around the world.

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the Week

We have heard the story of the Good Samaritan so many times. Have we ever realized that it is an enemy and outcast who is the hero of the story? Freed from laws that limit acts of mercy and compassion, the Samaritan becomes the example of how to love God by loving our neighbor. Our minds know what our faith teaches, and our mouths know what words to speak. Ultimately, deep down in our conscience, we know how we ought to act. Yet, as we encounter each new day, do we always do what we are called to do? Our neighbors live next to us and far away. They are down the street, sitting beside us, living in Mexico, Honduras, Ecuador, Guatemala, Poland, Russia, China, Korea, and Iraq. Our neighbors are even found in people who want to hurt us. How do we love them as Jesus asks us to? How do we answer this question will determine how much we really love God.
