The cake is frosted, the guests have arrived, and the gifts are piled high. One by one, the packages are opened, and one by one, the child reaches for another. Who among us hasn’t seen a child who appears crestfallen when the gifts run out? Even the abundance isn’t quite enough. Today’s Gospel tackles a key question in the spiritual life - grateful or greedy?

“There was a rich man whose land produced a bountiful harvest.” We all recognize the need to be practical. Raising a family, there’s need to save for all sorts of things beyond normal day-to-day costs - medical bills, family vacations, private school, rainy day funds, retirement. Jesus doesn’t critique the rich man for simply having an abundant harvest. It’s his mentality. Does the rich man sell off the extra to make the needed repairs to the back fence or to invest in some additional livestock to grow the business? Perhaps donate some of the excess to the poor? No. “You have so many good things stored up for many years, rest, eat, drink, be merry!” The man wants to hoard and indulge with no concern for others.

Jesus doesn’t condemn prudent saving or owning necessary items. He calls us to purify our attitudes. “Guard against all greed... one’s life does not consist of possessions." We are called to be good stewards. This means being practical. It also means remaining open to God’s invitation with our resources. Are we tithing to our parish? Do we give alms to the poor? Do our weekly entertainment far outstrip what we offer to others? Life is not about “stor[ing] up treasure for [our]selves.” The more we grow in gratitude and generosity, the more we become “rich in what matters to God.”

St. Vincent De Paul

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
In the Gospel, Jesus tells the parable about the rich man who selfishly stored all his grain and goods only to die and not enjoy his abundance anyway. What we struggle all our lives to learn is that life does not consist of possessions nor our perceived security, but of being possessed by God. This week, as you give your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you are realizing that in giving you indeed receive.

St. Bruno Book Club

Next meeting of the Book Club
Tuesday, August 13th:
The Girl Who Wrote in Silk by Kelli Estes
Vibrant and tragic, this novel explores a horrific, life-changing era in our nation’s history. Estes alternates between Mei Lien, a young Chinese American girl who lived in the late 1800’s, and Inara, a modern recent college grad who set Mei Lien’s story free. A testament to the endurance of the human spirit.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

How preoccupied and anxious are you over preserving and maintaining a particular standard of wealth? It is easy to develop an unhealthy relationship with our possessions and invest ourselves more in their protection and growth than in our relationship with God. Greed can overtake us, often without our immediate notice. Anxiety of heart can find us living more with sorrow and grief than with freedom and joy. We can never allow things to replace God, and we always have to keep our possessions and wealth in proper perspective. Once they begin to control us, we have a problem. Anxiety and worry can become our greatest sins.
There is a joyful life to be discovered when we discover true faith!
