Sharing the Gospel For the Kids

Jesus wants you to be honest. When you tell lies, your friends will not be able to trust you. Tell the truth. If you find a wallet, bring it to the police station. If you see someone drop some money, pick it up and give it back to them. If someone left a jacket or toy on the playground, don’t take it. Turn it in to “lost and found.” When you are honest with small things, people will see that you can be trusted with bigger things, too.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

"No servant can serve two masters." We struggle with where we put and give our allegiance. Who has the ultimate authority and claim over us? While our minds want to answer “God,” our lives often reveal other conflicting allegiances. Because we are made in the image of God, we are not given a ticket of entitlement or privilege. On the contrary, we are given a level playing field where we are one among many and called to live just and trustworthy lives. To serve God is to serve others and to see the primary purpose and focus of our lives as being good stewards. As God lifts up the poor, so too do we. As much as we want the world and God to serve our own self advancement, we have to resist this temptation at all costs. Injustice has no place in the kingdom of God.

ROOTED WOMEN'S GROUP

Starting Tuesday, October 8, 2019 from 6:00-7:30pm in the Family Room at St. Bruno's, you are invited to join a group of women interested in exploring their Catholic faith. Please contact Ellen Knaflic at 262-689-7938 or Aimee Daniels at 262-993-4003 for details.
Come and see... He delights in you!

Dear Female Friends in Christ,

Don’t we all have the tendency to give those that we love the gifts we love ourselves? With that in mind, I want to personally invite you to join me at the Women of Christ Conference on Saturday, November 9th. It’s a gift that you can give yourself that will nourish your soul. Come and see... He delights in you!

Last year was my first year to attend this event. Sometimes it’s hard to hear God’s voice above the noise of everyday life. This conference was the perfect opportunity for me to step away from life’s daily distractions, open my heart and mind to God, and let Him recharge my soul. The women gathered at the conference are like-minded; they all have a desire to deepen their faith, experience prayer at a deeper level, and network with other Christian women (which can also lead to lifelong friendships).

At this conference you will hear inspirational speakers who will deliver biblical messages written with women in mind. You’ll also have the opportunity to go to Mass and receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation (optional for those who desire to go). Finally, a “Girl’s Day” wouldn’t be complete without lunch and shopping – Lunch is provided and you can browse the booths of a variety of vendors. Bring your mother, daughters (middle school age or above), sisters, relatives, or friends. I am thankful that a dear friend invited me to share in this wonderful experience last year, which I am now extending to you. Blessings can come in many forms. The biggest blessing of this conference is that it leaves you feeling better equipped to go out and be a blessing to others!

For more information on the Women of Christ Conference, please visit the website womenofchrist.net for detailed information about tickets and speakers. You can register online for $45.00, or contact me to obtain the group rate of $40.00. Please note that if you register online, you will not be able to obtain the group rate – That must be done by the parish liaison. I would be more than happy to register for you. You can email me at karen.freres@stbrunoparishschool.com, or you can call me at 309-751-7646. You can also leave your registration form and check for $40.00 (made out to Karen Freres) in the parish office. Please register early. Last year the conference sold out three weeks prior to the event.

Please consider joining me on Saturday, November 9th from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. (doors open at 7:00 a.m.). Come and see... He delights in you!
