Welcome!
We hope you accept this as your invitation to rediscover the truth, wonder and mystery of the Catholic faith. If you have decided to make St. Bruno your church home, simply call 262-965-2332, stop by or visit www.stbrunoparish.com.

Are you considering serving the Church as an Ordained Deacon? The Church calls men to be deacons “in service” to the People of God. If you are a man (married or single), that feels this call and wants to know more, please contact the Office for Diaconate Formation at 414-758-2207 or maldonadom@archmil.org.

Mission Statement
St. Bruno Parish is a community of people sharing a common faith in the teachings of the Catholic tradition. We come together to worship God and to spread the Good News that Jesus gave us. Through celebrating Christian unity, we provide emotional support and practice the works of mercy.

Pastor Dan’s Weekly Message

Thanksgiving Prayer
We are thankful, God, this Thanksgiving Day
For all the blessings sent our way We pray for every family large or small We ask Thee to care for them all.
For all our loved ones far away
Dear God, keep them safe we pray
May they know they are not forgotten
On this Thanksgiving Day.

We give thanks for the miracles we receive Forgive us for being so blind we do not see Give us a new awareness of everything And for the joy to our life that you bring.
Dear God, we are thankful to you For the many things that you do We ask for Thy guidance along our way
As we pray this Thanksgiving Day.

God Bless, Fr. Dan

CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question: If we have a separation of church and state, how should faith influence the way we act in society, especially for those who have a role in the government?
Answer: No matter who we are, our inner lives affect the way we interact with the world. In the United States, we have freedom of religion. That means there is no official state-sanctioned religion. This does not mean that our faith is a private affair with no impact on public life! We have the ability to freely exercise our religious beliefs in accord with our conscience. Not only do we have the option to do so, but we also have the responsibility.

We’re called to imitate Christ in every area of our life, not compartmentalize our faith. This means acting with respect and honoring the common humanity all we encounter. It means recognizing the person behind the politics. It also means standing up for the truth of human life and dignity, and advocating for just policies that serve the common good. The Vatican has produced a “Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church.” It contains more detailed exposition of how our Catholic faith relates to various aspects of public life.

Live the Liturgy -
Inspiration for the Week Are we looking for Christ to be our earthly king or our eternal one? We often go back and forth with God on this question. What we find in the content of our prayer usually reveals the answer. Because life can be difficult, we may desire that God cushion our earthly experience a bit, make it more tolerable, remove the crosses, and do the miraculous.
Preserving our earthly lives can take too much precedence and be of too much concern. Christ the eternal king offers a different promise and hope. The eternal king offers us a way through suffering and hardship to the greater glory to be revealed when our journey is completed in heaven. The eternal king is not the king of earthly comfort but the king who advocates for the poor, vulnerable, lost, broken, marginalized, and hurting. We are asked to become like the eternal king, Jesus Christ, both in this life and in the life to come.

St. Bruno Parish Giving Tree
December 2019

Christmas is a time of giving. Again this year, we have the opportunity to make life a bit more comfortable for those in less desirable economic straits – the homeless and the needy – by supporting the following ministries: Life’s Connection, St. Ben’s Community, Hebron House of Hospitality, Family Promise of Waukesha County, and the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

Starting November 30, you will find a Christmas Tree decorated with paper ornaments in our Gathering Place. Each ornament contains a list of needed items. Just choose an ornament and then provide a gift no later than December 15.

Please put SCRIP Gift Cards in the collection basket at Mass or in the small box on the SCRIP table. Please place other unwrapped items in the large decorated boxes in the Gathering Place.

May God bless you for your generosity,
