They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. - Mt 2:10-11a

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

We may walk many roads when we search for God, and He leads us all the while. The men we honor today were not Jews. The Messiah wasn’t coming for them, not in the minds of Jesus’ contemporaries. These men were astrologers. They were adept at reading portents in the sky, a practice condemned in the Mosaic covenant. Still, to the best of their knowledge and awareness, they were seeking the truth. This truth led them to journey from their own homeland to honor a king they’d never met, one they couldn’t be sure truly existed. “We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage.” Who do you know seeks God so tenaciously?

“Magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem,” the Gospel tells us. “Overjoyed” at seeing the Light of the World. ©LPi

The magi and modern-day seekers can inspire us as well. When is the last time you sought God’s truth so tenaciously? As believers, it can perhaps be easy to become desensitized to the Christmas season and to the miraculous reality we recently celebrated. Mass may have been lovely, but so was the succulent roast beef, the crisp smell of evergreen, and the warm glow of family. Consider asking yourself, “God, do I know you as well as I should? Would I journey as far as the magi to meet You, if I could? Do I journey to meet You daily in prayer? What do those answer say about me, and about our relationship?” Perhaps we, like the magi, can once again be “overjoyed” at seeing the Light of the World. ©LPi

The Art & Environment committee needs help with décor and climbers for the upcoming holidays!

Pope Francis’ Simple 5 Finger Prayer

4. Stake: The ring finger is our weakest finger. It should remind us to pray for the weakest, the sick or those plagued by problems.

3. Leaders: The middle finger is the index. It reminds us of our leaders, the governors and those who have authority.

2. Teachers: The next finger is the index. How for those who teach you, instruct you and feed you.

5. Yourself: Your little pinkie should remind you to pray for yourself. When you are quite praying for the other fingers, you will be able to see your own need, put in the proper perspective, and as you will be able to pray for your own needs in a better way.

1. Loved Ones: The thumb is closest finger to you. Start by praying for those who are closest to you.
Sharing the Gospel With Kids
When Jesus was born, angels sang. I’ll bet you never thought stars could sing for Jesus, too. But the stars in the sky sang in their own way, just by moving and twinkling in the sky. The Savior was born. Jesus was the King that God’s people had been waiting for. Magi who had been watching the sky saw a star much brighter than the rest. They followed that star until they found Jesus, and they worshipped their new king.

Prayer
Dear God, thank you for making the stars move and twinkle in a special way, so that the Magi could find Jesus.
