HAPPY FATHER’S DAY
Father’s Day Blessing

We give our thanks, Creator God, for the fathers in our lives.

Fatherhood does not come with a manual, and reality teaches us that some fathers excel while others fail.

We ask for Your blessings for them all and forgiveness where it is needed.

This Father’s Day we remember the many sacrifices fathers make for their children and families, and the ways—both big and small—they lift children to achieve dreams thought beyond reach.

So too, we remember all those who have helped fill the void when fathers pass early or are absent; grandfathers and uncles, brothers and cousins, teachers, pastors and coaches and the women of our families.

For those who are fathers, we ask for wisdom and humility in the face of the task of parenting.

Give them the strength to do well by their children and by You. In Your Holy name, O God, we pray.

* Amen.

Employee Announcement!

I am pleased to announce that Kelsey DeMarais will be our Director of Stewardship and Communications for both St. Bruno and St. Paul. She will begin her position on June 15, 2020. Kelsey will work with both parishes to promote a lifestyle of stewardship while assisting our parishes to communicate our mission in a wide variety of ways. We look forward to Kelsey working with us to strengthen our parishes.

The Milk Angels

Have you heard about the milk give away? We have Milk Angels right here at St. Bruno Parish. They got the idea when the news showed farmers dumping milk. There was a news article about Sassy Cow Creamery owning a processing facility where they pasteurize their own milk.

Our Angels decided to purchase milk to donate to our local families who may need help feeding their kids. This seemed like a win-win for supporting the farmer and local families. It is their way of giving back to our community.

If you or someone you know are interested in receiving a gallon of milk that is rBGH free, please email Milkangel2020@gmail.com to reserve one. Pick up is on Wednesday June 24, between 12:00 and 2:00 pm. at the kitchen door near the playground. If you cannot come between 12-2, a gallon of milk can be held for you until 5 pm that day, just let the Milk Angels know with an email. Our donor only asks in exchange that we keep praying for all the people that are trying to stretch their food dollars and those who work in critical jobs.

To reserve your milk, email the Milk Angels Milkangel2020@gmail.com by Mondays at noon.

Reservations are not necessary, but they do help the Angels know how much milk to order. The Milk Angels will be offering this service every other week. Watch the bulletin for future dates. We offer thanks to our thoughtful donors.

We Belong We Believe We Become

Our high school community is just that a community! We are a community that builds relationships (belong) where the Spirit can move and grow (believe) and we build each other up in the Lord (become).

We currently are offering a great opportunity for you to join us! We have five small group leader positions open for the 2020-2021 school year. For the next few weeks I will be highlighting some of the exciting things we did this last year to give you an idea of what an outstanding opportunity this is. Don’t delay! Contact Jennifer Geisler at 262-968-2276 or at jgeisler@stpaulgenesee.net for more details about leading small groups go to our website.

This Week’s Highlight: Alpha Youth
Alpha gives teens an opportunity to address some of our most basic questions about life and faith. Through Alpha teens learn the truth of who Jesus is in His life, death and resurrection. Alpha is a wonderful tool to bring us into fellowship with God and one another. Fellowship is also a key component of Alpha and is important to our teens. Here is what a few of our teens had to say about Alpha:

- I have never looked forward to classes before, but now I do
- I had my doubts about the authenticity of the bible, but now I don’t
- I have not considered reading the bible, but I started and now I can’t stop!

Adult Formation

Speak in the LIGHT
Today’s readings include a lamentation of Jeremiah (lots to lament these days!), a reminder of God’s grace for all of us in St. Paul’s letter to the Romans (we can sure use that grace!), and Jesus himself reminding us, that to our Father, every one of us is worth more than the sparrows (in the context of the market, one of the cheapest articles sold). Jesus tells the Twelve to speak in the light - to do that we must spend more time with the Word and with our Catholic teachings. Take some time to read the US Council of Catholic Bishops statement Open Wide Our Hearts, the enduring call to love, a pastoral letter against racism. Thanks for your support!
Almost everyone in the St. Bruno Parish School community is taking a breather this week, as the 2019-20 school year is completed. The office, as always, is buzzing with activity as Mrs. MacDonald and Mrs. Price close out the 2019-20 school year and organize many elements of 2020-2021! Report cards went out to parents this past week, along with a gift of thanks to our school parents for their hard work as a part of their children’s educational team during the last 11 weeks of school. We appreciate you, parents!! We also want to wish our school and parish fathers a truly happy Father’s Day this weekend.

We remind all of our students (parents, too!) to keep READING over the summer. Reading is THE BEST way to keep your skills strong and to learn new words! Also be reminded to keep PRAYING over the summer. That is the best way to keep your soul and your heart strong!! Let’s all be what we are supposed to be: part of the Body of Christ to care for and inspire one another. Enjoy a wonderful summer relishing the love of God.

As always, you can contact us by email or phone (checking messages remotely): Mary MacDonald, Principal mary.macdonald@stbrunoparishschool.com or Tammy tammy.price@stbrunoparishschool.com.

Father’s Day

Last weekend we celebrated my parents 65th Anniversary. In the midst of the pandemic we were not sure if this celebration would take place. Restrictions eased and the celebration included Mass, a tour of their “homelands” in Manitowoc County, and dinner at their favorite supper club. They have journeyed through life as a married couple through the good and the hard times. I am so grateful my family could honor this amazing couple!

Today we honor and celebrate our Fathers. As you can see from this picture, I was a daddy’s girl, looking lovingly at my dad. He has always been my protector, helping to keep me safe. When I was 5 my best friend died unexpectedly. I felt lost without Kay, and dad helped to organize a play date with a girl my age. I remember when I was about 10 or 11, I took a major wipe out on my bike. After my fall, I still had to ride my bike home, crying all the way.

Dad cleaned up the road rash and got me all bandaged up. During the college years dad helped pack up the van with all of my stuff to move me to La Crosse, and was so proud of me. During the college years dad helped pack up the van with all of my stuff to move me to La Crosse, and was so proud of me. I am grateful every day that God gave me my dad, to lead by example, to instill good values, and to love me unconditionally.

God bless all of our dads!

Blessings, Amy Golden (aldgolden@gmail.com)

Small Class Sizes - Big Expectations

Did you know your Parish has a School that offers 3K and 4K programs?

We are very excited to have a great Early Education program focusing on academics in a play-based atmosphere. Our classrooms are led by licensed teachers. We offer half-day and full-day programs and have a Community Partnership with the Kettle Moraine School District. If you are already using a daycare facility, you will find that our tuition costs are very reasonable in comparison.

In addition to our preschool program, we offer a great education for your child through 8th grade. We believe in traditional values and use modern learning styles in our classrooms. Our dedicated, certified, Christ-Centered teachers give instruction 5 days a week.

The enrollment period has already begun. Take action now and give us a call, 262-965-2291, to discuss a St. Bruno education for ANY of your students in 3K-8th grade!

(Dispensation from attending mass given until July 5th.)
And so, the sign of peace also reminds us of reconciling with them before we are against us, then we are to go and seek a brother or sister is holding something that if we are at prayer and remember that in the fullness of the reign of God.

It is almost natural, then, that the rite of peace would follow. As the celebrant prays that Christ’s peace will fill our hearts, our fullness and ask that God provides for our needs — “Give us, this day, our daily bread” — to forgive our sins and to bring us to the joy of heaven.

It is almost natural, then, that the rite of peace would follow. As the celebrant prays that Christ’s peace will fill our hearts, our communities, the Church, and the whole world, we extend to those around us a sign of peace (usually a hug or a handshake) as a symbol of the communion that we experience now and will experience forever in the fullness of the reign of God.

We are also reminded of Jesus’ teachings that if we are at prayer and remember that a brother or sister is holding something against us, then we are to go and seek reconciliation with them before we continue our prayer (see Matthew 5:23). And so, the sign of peace also reminds us of the need to truly be in communion — united in love and peace — with God and one another before we approach the altar to receive the Eucharist.

So, the next time you’re at Mass and the time comes for the sign of peace, remember that this is a moment to celebrate the gift of Christ’s peace that each of us has received from God and to pass that peace along to those around us. We need this moment to practice, because this is also the same peace of Christ that we are instructed to carry out into the world at the end of Mass when the priest or deacon says to us, “Go, in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life.” ©LPI

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Jesus knows that the challenges a disciple of the Gospel will face in the world are real. He tells all of us point blank, “Do not be afraid.” There are many things we can fear as we attempt to live the Gospel: unpopularity, being rebuked, rejection, anger, being challenged, having to defend ourselves, standing alone, insecurity, failure, and even death. Many folks know that their faith calls them to live life more deliberately and radically but are cowards when it comes to putting it into practice. We easily justify sticking with the “acceptable” norms with which we are accustomed. These only serve to keep us stuck and mired in mediocrity. The Gospel — given flesh by the very presence of Christ — seeks to stretch, challenge, and change us. We do not have to fear anything, even death. Sometimes, living with our fears brings us a sadly disordered sense of comfort. Maybe what we really fear above all else is change. ©LPI

MASS INTENTIONS – at almost every Mass there is a specific intention. This is usually in memory of a loved one who has died, but it could be for a special anniversary or another special intention. These intentions are published in the bulletin every week for the upcoming week. If you would like to have a Mass celebrated for a special intention ($10 stipend) call the office 262-965-2332.
