13th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
“Whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple—amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward.” - Mt 10:42
When we were baptized, we were baptized into Christ’s death. Take a moment to ponder these profound words. We were baptized into death. In every sense of the word, we are asked to die. This is not just about our final death but about daily deaths due to inconvenience, discomfort, pain, loss, or others’ needs. This is an incredible epiphany given the way we very often approach our lives. We do everything to avoid death, let alone encounter it! Many avoid pain, discomfort, inconvenience, uneasiness, change, interference, and suffering of any kind. We put a lot of energy into finding the easiest and least inconvenient way through many things. Even holding the door open for a stranger or saying hello to someone in the store can be major undertakings.

We are called to die. One of the biggest wake-up calls we can have is realizing that life is not about us! There are millions of other people sharing life on this planet with whom I have a relationship. Does my life celebrate those relationships? The most distracting question we can ask is, “What do I want to do?” The more focused, faith-filled question is, “What do I need to do?” What I need to do may not be what I want to do. However, asking this question more frequently will teach us how to more purposefully and intentionally live so we can be a life giving vessel for others. When we learn to live more sacrificially, to put the needs of others before our own, and to not always seek our own self-interest, we become aware of what baptism into Christ’s death is really all about. These are the roots of virtue and the seedbed for justice, tolerance, solidarity, love, and peace.

Learning how to accept all the “small deaths” and sacrifices life calls us to teaches us how to approach our final death. All deaths ask us to empty ourselves into something or someone else. Whether we empty ourselves into the heart and soul of another human being or empty ourselves into God at the moment of our final death, new life is always received and nurtured. A heart that exclusively seeks its own interest is a heart that is closed to love. A heart that pours itself out to others and is content with being emptied is a heart that has been touched by and open to mercy. It is a heart that overflows with joy. ©LPi

There's nothing ORDINARY about Ordinary Time

We made it through Lent, Holy Week, Easter Season, and all the special feasts we celebrate after the Easter Season. Now we’re back to Ordinary Time, and we see Fr. Dan wearing green vestments again.

What does Ordinary Time mean? Ordinary Time is called “ordinary” not because it is common but simply because the weeks of Ordinary Time are numbered. The Latin word ordinalis, which refers to numbers in a series, stems from the Latin word ordo, from which we get the English word order. Thus, the numbered weeks of Ordinary Time, in fact, represent the ordered life of the Church—the period in which we live our lives neither in feasting (as in the Christmas and Easter seasons) or in more severe penance (as in Advent and Lent), but in watchfulness and expectation of the Second Coming of Christ.

Why Is Green the Color of Ordinary Time? The normal liturgical color for Ordinary Time—for those days when there is no special feast—is green. Green vestments and altar cloths have traditionally been associated with the time after Pentecost, the feast to Ordinary Time, and we see Fr. Dan wearing green vestments special feasts we celebrate after the Easter Season. Now we’re back. We made it through Lent, Holy Week, Easter Season, and all the weeks.

The liturgical year, and is composed of 33 or 34 complete or partial weeks.

What can we do to make Ordinary Time special?

1. Focus on Christ’s life: Read and talk about the Sunday Gospel before you go to Mass. I always find it so much more interesting to hear what Fr. Dan has to say about the Gospel when I’ve read it prior to Mass.

2. Learn about the lives of the saints: The Saints are a great way to show your family how to live a life that shines a relationship with Jesus.

3. Go to confession: Parishes remind us to go to reconciliation during Advent and Lent, oftentimes organizing parish-wide opportunities to go. But perhaps summer vacation from busy school schedules might lend itself to more time for intentional examinations of conscience, penance and forgiveness. Perhaps as we work on our relationship with Jesus, we can work on our relationships with one another.

4. Celebrate the Eucharist: Go to Mass with your kids, reminding them every single Sunday is a celebration of Christ’s resurrection.

5. Create or spruce up your home prayer table: Do you have a home prayer table? Spruce it up with special items that only come out during ordinary time: saint cards for the feast days of the saints, natural objects that represent the season (fall leaves, spring flowers, beautiful pebbles)...and, of course, a green tablecloth, or even a banner your kids make.

What ways will you and your family mark this liturgical season of growing closer to knowing Jesus together as a family? How will you make ordinary time extraordinary this year?

Blessings, Amy Golden (aldgolden@gmail.com)

MAKE ROOM

In the first reading, the woman of Shunem made room for Elisha when he passed through town, because over time, she came to realize that he was a holy man. Her reward was A CHILD! (Please read the whole story in 2 Kings-the result of her hospitality toward Elisha was miraculous!) Today’s responsorial psalm proclaims: Forever I will sing the goodness of the Lord (Ps 95). The woman of Shunem was certainly going to be doing that!!! How are you, amid all the tensions of these days of uncertainty, singing the goodness of the Lord, making room for holiness? Have you tried a new prayer routine? Are you calling to check in more often on friends/family? Are you finding God in the simple things like a purple clover? (Have you ever looked closely at the perfection of the pattern in these humble blooms? The goodness of the Lord is stamped all over it!)

Or are you feeling stuck or isolated? If so, perhaps you would like to try a virtual small group or a prayer partner experience or maybe you have some other idea that’s been floating around in your head. Give Mary Kral a call in the parish office to just talk, or pray, or brainstorm. If you’re feeling like it is time to make room for the Lord but you’re not sure how, the Holy Spirit is probably trying to tell you something! Make room. Contact Mary Kral mkral@stpaulgenesee.net

Why Do We Do That?
Catholic Tradition Explained

Question: Why do Catholics call priests Father?

Answer: One of the common objections evangelical Christians have to Catholics is our practice of calling priests by the title Father. They will often cite a passage in Matthew’s Gospel in which Jesus tells his followers: “Call no one on earth your father; you have but one Father in heaven” (23:19). It seems pretty straightforward, but when we put this verse in context, we see that Jesus is speaking out against religious leaders who had forgotten what their proper role was and who were bad examples through their own hypocrisy and elitist attitudes.

In other Gospels, we find Jesus himself using the title father for different characters, such as in the Parable of Lazarus and the Rich Man (Luke 16:19-31) and the Parable of the Prodigal Son (Luke 15:11-32). If we put the verse from Matthew into the full scope of Jesus’ teachings, he isn’t saying that we can’t use words like “father,” “rabbi,” or “master.” Rather, he is telling us that we should be mindful of the full meaning of those titles and not to misuse them.

To call a priest “Father” is more than a sign of respect for the office of the priesthood. It goes all the way back to the way St. Paul understood his own work as a missionary and evangelizer. Paul wrote, “I am writing you in this way not to shame you but to admonish you as my beloved children... It was I who begot you in Christ Jesus through my preaching of the Gospel. I beg you, then, be imitators of me. This is why I have sent you Timothy, my beloved and faithful son in the Lord” (1 Corinthians 4:14-17). ©LPI

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the Week

“Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?” What do you understand these words to mean? Many see these words as an indication of what may come in eternal life. In actuality, they have more to do with our lives here and now. We are called to die to ourselves and offer our lives as gifts given generously to others. It is not about us. We are asked to serve God and not continue in our service of sin. Life is about learning to do what we really do not want to do because it brings us deeper into the mystery of God, ourselves, and others. Learning how to accept and live with the “small deaths” and sacrifices we encounter teaches us how to live with and approach our final death. We can do so with a heart that has been touched by and is open to mercy or one that is self-focused and closed. ©LPI
