

TUESDAYS: Book Study: “The Work of Mercy”

Join Deacon John Mezydlo as he leads a study of the book “The Work of Mercy, Being the Hands and Heart of Christ” by Mark P. Shea. Reflecting on the corporal and spiritual works of mercy, the author examines their history and practice, and how to apply to everyday life. With wit and insight, Mark Shea shines new light on these ancient traditions. For practical use, he outlines some organizations working in each discipline. There is a $14 charge for each book, payable to St. Bruno Parish.
