Fund the Mission of St. Theresa

January 13-17, 2020

School Information

Happy New Year! We hope everyone enjoyed many happy, healthy Christmas blessings this holiday. What an amazing week we had! The teachers and staff were excited to be back on campus to kick off the semester. The students had a busy week. On Wednesday the students competed in the annual spelling bee. We would like to congratulate our Spelling Bee winners! Miranda Erich will represent St. Theresa's Junior High at the Archdiocesan Spelling Bee, with Bella Burford as alternate. Simone Wollin will represent our Elementary School with Annie Parma as alternate.

The students also practiced their little hearts out with Sr. Symphonie all week to perform in the Advent Concert this afternoon. The students performance was breathe taking. There wasn't a dry eye in the audience at the end when all of the students sang "Happy Birthday Jesus". What a blessing it is to have Sr. Symphonie share her gift of music with our students!

Parents as students begin a new semester, this is the perfect time to establish some new routines to improve the process of doing homework. We wanted to be sure to pass along these tips for you to share with your student(s) and start this year off right...click here to read article

We are looking forward to another great semester. Be sure to visit our website to review the revised school calendar.

St. Theresa Vikings in Action

We thought we would share what our Vikings were up to this holiday season. Our talented St. Theresa students performed in Nutcracker performances across the city. We had students that performed in the Nutcracker with the Houston Ballet at Jones Hall. We also had students that performed at the Grand Opera House in Galveston for their annual production of the Nutcracker. Congratulations to our Viking Ballerinas. We are so proud of you!
