'19 Merry Christmas

School Information

Our patron saint, St. Therese of Lisieux, shared her story of Christmas conversion, of being called beyond her self-centered dreams to empty herself for others, as God did in Jesus. As we approach the Nativity of the Lord (Christmas), let each of us take a moment to pause and share how this advent season has changed our own hearts. Encourage the children to share their little advent actions, their prayers, sacrifices, or acts of kindness.

St. Therese of Lisieux 1886 Christmas Conversion "In this brilliant night which illuminates the joy of the Holy Trinity, Jesus, the gentle little child of the hour, will change the darkness of my soul into torrents of light."

Wishing all of our St. Theresa families a prayerful and joyful Christmas.
