Mission Coop - PIME Missionaries
Mission Coop Appeal Weekend June 8th & 9th

Our group this year is PIME (The Pontifical Institute for Foreign Missions) was born in 1850 from a burning passion for the poor, and the need to witness God's love to those who had never known it. PIME are Catholic Priests and Brothers who dedicate themselves to be lifelong messengers of the Gospel to those who have not yet heard the Word of God. They develop genuine Catholic communities through inter-religious dialogue and charitable work, all done with a focus on social justice. Above all, they bridge the gap that isolation, both physical and spiritual, can cause. They provide clean water, sustainable food sources, electricity, shelter, warm beds, medication, hospitals, schools, and even new places of worship. To sum it up: they don't spread the Word of God, they witness it to others. Fr. Bruno Piccolo is assigned to this mission. - (Do not give contribution to the Missionary group. Checks should be made out to St. George - St. Francis Parish). Thank you!

Life's White Ribbon Campaign

We want to share what was birthed out of the devastation we felt in learning about the passing of New York's RHA Abortion Law.

It took days before we were able to mentally process the degree of this evil. A law that has an addendum, exonerating non-doctors performing abortions from criminal prosecution. That confirms they were already aware that the act itself is CRIMINAL!

We concluded OUR VALUES need to be SEEN if they can't be HEARD!

It's with this, the "Precious Feet White Ribbon Campaign" began! We're asking all who believe Christ is Life to join with us. We're giving these ribbons away for FREE, to anyone who will wear them in support of this cause. We also are asking Churches and Ladies Groups to consider making them as well. The more people wearing them, the more visual an impact we will make.

Precious Feet Pins are located in the back of the Church. Please take one and wear it.

For more information or to ask for sample ribbons please contact: Elinor D'Andrea at Ideandrea@hvc.rr.com.

May God be pleased with our efforts.

We Will Come to Them

by Jane Mellett

In a verse preceding today's Gospel, the disciples ask Jesus why he will not show the whole world who he is. It's an excellent question. Surely this whole faith-journey experience and relationship with God would be far easier if there were fireworks and clear instructions. Jesus' response to the disciples is: 'Those who love me will keep my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them.' This is the opening line of today's Gospel. It reminds us that what is required first is an inner relationship with God, so that God can come and make a home with us: 'we will come to them and make our home with them.' It is there where we discover who Jesus is.

The peace (shalom) that Jesus gives to the disciples has a much richer meaning than we might first think. This 'shalom' is not simply a good wish for a nice evening; it is, rather, a peace that this world cannot offer. It is a peace that comes from a loving relationship with God; a peace of body, of mind and of spirit. Jesus is asking the disciples to be an unending witness to God's love. They (and we) must be for others what Jesus has been for them. In this way we, and the world, will come to see who Jesus is.

'When we understand the essential unity of all that is, we discover the possibility of 'peace' – the kind of peace that in Hebrew is called shalom, and which is infinitely more than an absence of strife; it is the wholeness of the web of life itself and of every creature in it, held in the wholeness of the one God.'

Many ask how the Church is paying for programs and settlements in response to the sex abuse scandals. In light of the most recent crisis, Cardinal Dolan has been outspoken in helping others find healing and receive answers in this challenging time. His Eminence has clarified that charitable donations will not be used to fund the Reconciliation and Compensation Program, saying, "Please know that no gifts to the Cardinal's Annual Stewardship Appeal or the Renew + Rebuild campaign are being used to fund the program."

The archdiocese has borrowed money against the land it owns under the Palace Hotel, and will repay the loan with the sale of other property over time through other real estate holdings.
