

Mission Coop - PIME Missionaries

Mission Coop Appeal Weekend June 8th & 9th

Our group this year is PIME (The Pontifical Institute for Foreign Missions) was born in 1850 from a burning passion for the poor, and the need to witness God's love to those who had never known it. PIME are Catholic Priests and Brothers who dedicate themselves to be lifelong messengers of the Gospel to those who have not yet heard the Word of God. They develop genuine Catholic communities through inter-religious dialogue and charitable work, all done with a focus on social justice. Above all, they bridge the gap that isolation, both physical and spiritual, can cause. They provide clean water, sustainable food sources, electricity, shelter, warm beds, medication, hospitals, schools, and even new places of worship. To sum it up: they don't spread the Word of God, they witness it to others. Fr. Bruno Piccolo is assigned to this mission. -

Life's White Ribbon Campaign

We want to share what was birthed out of the devastation we felt in learning about the passing of New York's RHA Abortion Law.

It took days before we were able to mentally process the degree of this evil. A law that has an addendum, exonerating non-doctors performing abortions from criminal prosecution. That confirms they were already aware that the act itself is CRIMINAL!

We concluded OUR VALUES need to be SEEN if they can't be HEARD!

It's with this, the "Precious Feet White Ribbon Campaign" began! We're asking all who believe Christ is Life to join with us. We're giving these ribbons away for FREE, to anyone who will wear them in support of this cause. We also are asking Churches and Ladies Groups to consider making them as well. The more people wearing them, the more visual an impact we will make.

Precious Feet Pins are located in the back of the Church. Please take one and wear it.

For more information or to ask for sample ribbons please contact: Elinor D'Andrea at Ideandrea@hvc.rr.com.

May God be pleased with our efforts.

Gifted Communicators

by Triona Doherty

Have you ever watched a TED Talk? There are thousands available to view online. The powerful talks are generally less than 18 minutes long and cover a huge range of topics, from science to business to social and global issues. There are talks in more than 110 languages, and they are used in schools, businesses and many other settings, to educate, motivate, and open minds. While the speakers come from a variety of backgrounds, the one thing they have in common is their ability to communicate. For every talk I've listened to, the speaker has the audience in the palm of their hand. They are gifted communicators, with a passion for a particular subject, and the ability to draw their listeners in.

We often hear that in order to be a good communicator, we have to learn how to speak another person's language. On the day of Pentecost, when the disciples were filled with the Holy Spirit, each of the people gathered heard them speaking in his or her own language. The ability to communicate and to be understood was the first gift they received from the Holy Spirit. Today, we need the gift of communication more than ever. There are times when we have the opportunity to share our faith, or to witness to others in the way we live our faith. We might feel that we struggle to share our faith in a way that others can understand. In order to meet people where they are, we first need to 'speak their language' – to know them, listen to them, and recognize God's presence in them. The Spirit that came upon the early believers is the same Spirit that guides us today.
