

Who Is Lori Giovannini?

Lori Giovannini is a Catholic relationship coach and educator. She has a B.S. in Psychology from University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee. Lori is a Certified Life and Weight Loss Coach with The Life Coach School, a certified Christian Transformational Growth and Leadership Coach with the Christian Life Coach School and a certified Brain Health Coach with Amen Clinics. Lori trained with Francis and Judith McNutt at the Catholic Charismatic Conference, for three consecutive years, completing courses in Healing-Levels 1, 2 and 3.

Her Catholic faith is foundational in her coaching. Lori is an active member of Saint Pius X Parish along with her spouse, Lou, who is a deacon in the Church. Lori was a member of a healing ministry for over 20 years. She has witnessed hundreds of people receive miracles, healings, blessings, and graces, as Jesus' love was poured out into the lives of those she prayed with.

Because of that, Lori understands the need for bringing Jesus into each coaching session to help guide her and her clients throughout the session. Along with coaching and prayer, she teaches her clients about brain health and spiritual growth and uses proven coaching tools and techniques that will transform any relationship whether with a spouse, child/teen, boss, a relative and most importantly yourself.

Before becoming a fulltime certified coach, Lori served as the executive director of a large Catholic women's nonprofit. Lori has 25 years of experience in one on one coaching and mentoring, group coaching, and facilitating and speaking at retreats and other seminars, many alongside her husband.

She has been married for 31 years and they have three (adult) children. Besides coaching, she enjoys the beach, traveling, writing, having lunch with friends, and leading Bible studies to help both men, women, and married couples, have a personal relationship with the Lord. Because of this, she incorporates prayer for personal and spiritual growth into her coaching.

Her clients say that you will not only see amazing result coaching with Lori, but you will grow and be healed spiritually, emotionally, and mentally.
