ST. PATRICK'S PARADE —

Among those in one of the two reviewing stands for the second annual St. Patrick's Day parade yesterday at New City were, left to right above, the Rev. James M. Gilmartin, county chaplain for the Ancient Order of Hibernians, which sponsored the parade; the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Michael J. Toner of St. Margaret's Church, Pearl River; the Rt. Rev. Msgr. James P. Kelly of Sacred Heart Church, Suffern, and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. George F. Brennan of St. Augustine's Church, New City. In the photograph at right is Brown and McCarthy's Irish Dancing Group, one of the many units marching in the parade.—Staff Photos, Witt.
