Perfection as One: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Seventh Sunday of Easter.

Jesus is praying for us in today’s Gospel. We are those who have come to believe in Him through the Word of the Apostles, handed on in His Church.

Jesus showed the Apostles His glory and made known the Father’s name and the love He has had for us from “before the foundation of the world.”

He revealed that He and the Father are one (see John 14:9).

Jesus is the “first and the last” (see Isaiah 44:6), the root of David (see Isaiah 11:10; 2 Samuel 7:12), as today’s Second Reading declares.

Wrapped in clouds and darkness as God was at Sinai (see Exodus 19:16), He is “the king . . . the Most High over all the earth,” as we sing in today’s Psalm.

Exalted at God’s right hand, as Stephen sees in the First Reading, the Lord calls to us through the Church, His Bride.

He calls us to “the tree of life,” to communion with God. This is the goal of His love, His saving purpose from all eternity—that each of us enter into the life of Blessed Trinity, be “brought to perfection as one” with the Father and Son in the Spirit.

The story of Stephen, the first martyr, shows us how we are to answer His call.

Listen for the echoes of the Crucifixion: Stephen, like Jesus, sees the Son of Man in glory and dies with words of forgiveness and self-offering on his lips (compare Acts 7:56–60; Matthew 26:64–65; Luke 23:24, 46).

We, too, are to commend our spirits to the Father, to pray and offer our lives in love for our brethren, awaiting His coming in judgment. We renew our vows in every Mass, coming forward to receive the gift of His life.

We answer His call by crying out a call of our own: “Amen! Come, Lord Jesus!”

And in our communion, we answer our Lord’s prayer: “That they may all be one, as You, Father are in Me and I in You. (Used with permission <https://stpaulcenter.com/perfection-as-one-scott-hahn-reflects-on-the-seventh-sunday-of-easter/>)

FINAL CALL...FINAL CALL!!!!

Our Parish Picnic Needs Your Help- Planning for our June 9th Parish Picnic is underway, and we've got some great ideas planned to make it a fun day for everyone, but we need your help!

We need volunteers to help with set up and clean up, supervision of games, food service, and more! If you can lend a hand to make this a terrific event for our parish, please visit our website at <https://sjescb.org/> and follow the link to our volunteer sign up. If your family might be interested in joining in on some team sports during the picnic, be sure to toss your sports equipment in the car!

God our Father make us joyful in the ascension of your Son Jesus Christ. May we follow him into the new creation for his ascension is our glory and our hope. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.
