ATTENTION: If you happen to notice weeds around the church grounds, it is because our volunteer yard maintenance person is about to turn 91! Molly Ross has taken care of the flowerbeds for the last few years, and singlehandedly had the weeds practically eliminated. The yard looked the best it has in years! She is still willing to help, but because of some minor health concerns, we have asked her to stop with the promise that someone(s) else would take care of weeding. If you have some extra time in the evenings, you might consider helping out. Oh, and if you see Molly, thank her and wish her a happy birthday – even though it’s not until the 10th.
