BRIEF SUMMARY OF PARISH COUNCIL MEETING, Oct. 7:

- The council has three bids for a new roof, and will get a couple more before moving forward.
- LeeAnnette Fortier and Rita Keene approached Fr. Mario over the summer about the possibility of him remaining in the rectory if he decides to retire. They were willing to address the bishop for permission for him to stay. Fr. Mario at the time seemed in favor of the idea, but said he does not plan to retire right now and will go to Colombia when he does.
- To have the poplar wood hauled away by the tree service, it would cost $3000. We will put an ad in the paper and try to make an effort to get rid of it before going that route.
- The council approved a project for the Faith Formation students to do.
- We are in need of someone to lease the farm ground next year.
- Joan Schuler will look into having a Church Mission.
- The kitchen is in need of a good cleaning... the refrigerators need to be pulled out and the stove hood and duct work need to be cleaned. They are a fire hazard. Mary will talk to Theresa Melburn to see who she suggests or if it is something they can do. Pat Moore will look for a new freezer

SCOTT HAHN'S REFLECTION: A foreign leper is cleansed and in thanksgiving returns to offer homage to the God of Israel. We hear this same story in both the First Reading and Gospel today. There were many lepers in Israel in Elisha's time, but only Naaman the Syrian trusted in God's Word and was cleansed (see Luke 5:12-14). Today's Gospel likewise implies that most of the ten lepers healed by Jesus were Israelites—but only a foreigner, the Samaritan, returned. In a dramatic way, we're being shown today how faith has been made the way to salvation, the road by which all nations will join themselves to the Lord, becoming His servants, gathered with the Israelites into one chosen people of God, the Church (see Isaiah 56:3-8).

Today's Psalm also looks forward to the day when all peoples will see what Naaman sees—that there is no God in all the earth except the God of Israel. We see this day arriving in today's Gospel. The Samaritan leper is the only person in the New Testament who personally thanks Jesus. The Greek word used to describe his "giving thanks" is the word we translate as "Eucharist." And these lepers today reveal to us the inner dimensions of the Eucharist and sacramental life. We, too have been healed by our faith in Jesus. As Naaman's flesh is made again like that of a little child, our souls have been cleansed of sin in the waters of Baptism. We experience this cleansing again and again in the Sacrament of Penance—as we repent our sins, beg and receive mercy from our Master, Jesus. We return to glorify God in each Mass, to offer ourselves in sacrifice—falling on our knees before our Lord, giving thanks for our salvation. In this Eucharist, we remember "Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David," Israel's covenant king. And we pray, as Paul does in today's Epistle, to persevere in this faith—that we too may live and reign with Him in eternal glory.
