PUBLIC SQUARE ROSARY, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 10: America is at a historic crossroad. God is more offended than ever as people ignore Our Lady's maternal request to "stop offending God." As a result, America is suffering from a pandemic, rioting, looting, and murder, as well as moral and societal collapse. It is urgent that we heed Our Lady's request and stop sinning if we hope to enjoy God's blessings and to avert His wrath. He will hear us, if we pray through the intercession of His Blessed Mother. In The Secret of the Rosary, Saint Louis de Montfort said: "Public prayer is far more powerful than private prayer to appease the anger of God and call down His mercy, and Holy Mother Church, guided by the Holy Ghost, has always advocated public prayer in times of public tragedy and suffering." Join us Saturday, October 10 at 12:00 noon by the Veteran's Memorial Wall for the 2020 Public Square Rosary Rally.

LA CRUZADA DE ROSARIO EN LA PLAZA PUBLICA DEL 2020: América se encuentra en una encrucijada. Dios está siendo ofendido, ahora mas que nunca, ya que la gente ignora la petición maternal de Nuestra Señora de "dejar de ofender a Dios". Como resultado, América está sufriendo una pandemia, disturbios, saqueos y asesinatos, así como también, un colapso moral y social. Es urgente escuchar la petición de Nuestra Señora y abandonar el pecado si esperamos gozar de las bendiciones de Dios y evitar su ira. El nos escuchará, si a través de nuestra oración, pedimos la intercesión de su Santísima Madre. En su libro "El Secreto del Rosario", San Luis María Grignon de Montfort nos dice: "La oración pública es mucho mas poderosa que la oración privada para aplacar la ira de Dios e invocar su Misericordia, y la Santa Madre Iglesia, guiada por el Espíritu Santo siempre ha promovido la oración en público en tiempos de tragedia y sufrimiento colectivo." Please join us Saturday, October 10 at 12:00 noon near the Veteran's Memorial Wall. Únase a nosotros el sábado 10 de octubre a las 12:00 del mediodía cerca del Veteran's Memorial Wall.

Living on the Vine: Scott Hahn Reflects on the 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time...

In today's Gospel Jesus returns to the Old Testament symbol of the vineyard to teach about Israel, the Church, and the kingdom of God. And the symbolism of today's First Reading and Psalm is readily understood. God is the owner and the house of Israel is the vineyard. A cherished vine, Israel was plucked from Egypt and transplanted in a fertile land specially spaded and prepared by God, hedged about by the city walls of Jerusalem, watched over by the towering Temple. But the vineyard produced no good grapes for the wine, a symbol for the holy lives God wanted for His people. So God allowed His vineyard to be overrun by foreign invaders, as Isaiah foresees in the First Reading.

Jesus picks up the story where Isaiah leaves off, even using Isaiah's words to describe the vineyard's wine press, hedge, and watchtower. Israel's religious leaders, the tenants in His parable, have learned nothing from Isaiah or Israel's past. Instead of producing good fruits, they've killed the owner's servants, the prophets sent to gather the harvest of faithful souls. In a dark foreshadowing of His own crucifixion outside Jerusalem, Jesus says the tenants' final outrage will be to seize the owner's son, and to kill him outside the vineyard walls. For this, the vineyard, which Jesus calls the kingdom of God, will be taken away and given to new tenants—the leaders of the Church, who will produce its fruit.

We are each a vine in the Lord's vineyard, grafted onto the true vine of Christ (see John 15:1-8), called to bear fruits of the righteousness in Him (see Philippians 1:11) and to be the "first fruits" of a new creation (see James 1:18). We need to take care that we don't let ourselves be overgrown with the thorns and briars of worldly anxiety. As today's Epistle advises, we need to fill our hearts and minds with noble intentions and virtuous deeds, rejoicing always that the Lord is near.
