FOR MORE THAN 70 YEARS, CATHOLIC CHARITIES HAS BEEN REACHING OUT IN LOVE to help those in need. GIVING TREE: We are still planning to have our Giving Tree up by Thanksgiving as we have done in the past. We participate in the Lions Club program to help members in our community at Christmas. The need will probably be much greater this year. Our parish has always been generous in helping – thank you in advance!

Winter Break for Magnificat Faith Formation Program in English.... The Magnificat Faith Formation Program in English will have a winter break from November 16, 2020 through February 3, 2021. The virtual classes will resume on Thursday, February 4, 2021 with Fr. Dan Steele from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. Let us continue to pray for everyone who works in the medical field, for those who work to keep our roads safe, for the first responders, and especially for those who are ill due to Covid-19.

JUST TO CLARIFY.... Our 25% capacity for Sunday Masses has gone from 75 to 100. The increase is not because any directives came from the diocese or the governor, but because we had the building official come and give us an official count of what our full capacity is. Nothing has changed concerning funerals, weddings and quinceaneras. We are still allowed only 30 people. AS YOU KNOW, THE GOVERNOR PUT IN PLACE NEW DIRECTIVES UNTIL AT LEAST DECEMBER 14. The only real change to our liturgies is that there can be no congregational singing.

OFFERTORY COLLECTION, November 15: $2484.00

MINISTERS FOR NEXT SUNDAY

Lectors: Rita Keene; Eucharistic Ministers: Warren and Kathy Horning; Greeters: Rita and Mary; Cleaners: Volunteer

HELP NEEDED: We need more volunteers to help clean the pews after the Masses so the same ones are not doing it every week. Please let Mary know if you can help with the 9:00 a.m. Mass, or Alejandra Garcia know if you can help with the Spanish Masses.

SCOTT HAHN REFLECTS ON THE SOLEMNITY OF CHRIST THE KING: The Church year ends today with a vision of the end of time. The scene in the Gospel is stark and resounds with Old Testament echoes. The Son of Man is enthroned over all nations and peoples of every language (see Daniel 7:13-14). The nations have been gathered to see His glory and receive His judgment (see Isaiah 66:18; Zephaniah 3:8). The King is the divine shepherd Ezekiel foresees in today's First Reading, judging as a shepherd separates sheep from goats.

Each of us will be judged upon our performance of the simple works of mercy we hear in the Gospel today. These works, as Jesus explains today, are reflections or measures of our love for Him, our faithfulness to His commandment that we love God with all our might and our neighbor as ourselves (see Matthew 22:36-40).

Our faith is dead, lifeless, unless it is expressed in works of love (see James 2:20; Galatians 5:6). And we cannot say we truly love God, whom we cannot see, if we don't love our neighbor, whom we can (see 1 John 4:20).

The Lord is our shepherd, as we sing in today's Psalm. And we are to follow His lead, to imitate His example (see 1 Corinthians 1:11; Ephesians 5:1).

He healed our sickness (see Luke 6:19), freed us from the prison of sin and death (see Romans 8:2, 21), welcomed us who were once strangers to His covenant (see Ephesians 2:12, 19). He clothed us in Baptism (see Revelation 3:5; 2 Corinthians 5:3-4), and feeds us with the food and drink of His own body and blood.

At "the end," He will come again to hand over His kingdom to His Father, as Paul says in today's Epistle.

Let us strive to follow Him in right paths, that this kingdom might be our inheritance, that we might enter into the eternal rest promised for the people of God (see Hebrews 4:1, 9-11).

"Whatever you do for one of the least of these...." This seems especially fitting for this year, with many people affected financially by the pandemic. The food bank, as well as Serve Quincy Valley can use your help financially and with donations of food and household items. In addition to the Giving Tree, there will be a basket in the Narthex to collect items for the Food Bank, or you can take your donations to them on Tuesday or Friday mornings. To make a donation to Serve Quincy Valley, look them up, or call Mary for help. You can even put your donation in the collection basket (clearing marked) and we will get it to them.
