CONGRESS IS TRYING TO FORCE AMERICANS TO PAY FOR ABORTION.

The Hyde Amendment and similar laws have protected taxpayers from funding elective abortion for 45 years. Now, powerful members of Congress want to take away these laws that both Democrats and Republicans have supported for nearly half a century. Billions of taxpayer dollars could be used to pay for abortion. TAKE ACTION! Sign the petition to Congress! Stop your tax dollars from going to abortion.

www.NoTaxpayerAbortion.com. The USCCB has launched a campaign for Catholics to raise their voices on behalf of women. The goal is for millions of Catholics to sign the petition on NoTaxpayerAbortion.com by July 16.

EL CONGRESO ESTÁ TRATANDO DE OBLIGAR A LOS ESTADOUNIDENSES A PAGAR POR EL ABORTO.

La Enmienda Hyde y leyes similares han protegido a los contribuyentes de financiar el aborto electivo durante 45 años. Ahora, los poderosos miembros del Congreso quieren eliminar estas leyes que tanto demócratas como republicanos han apoyado durante casi medio siglo. Miles de millones de dólares de los contribuyentes podrían usarse para pagar el aborto. ¡TOMA ACCIÓN! ¡Firme la petición al Congreso! Impida que sus dólares de impuestos vayan al aborto. www.NoTaxpayerAbortion.com. El objetivo es que millones de católicos firmen la petición el NoTaxpayerAbortion.com antes del 16 de julio.

IF YOU HAVE SCHEDULED A WEDDING OR QUINCEANERA ON OUR CALENDAR, CHECK OUR WEBSITE TO MAKE SURE YOU ARE INDEED ON IT. That is always good to do, but especially since we had so many cancellations and re-scheduled events during the pandemic.

BEFORE WE KNOW IT, summer is going to be over and it will be time to start Faith Formation classes again. We are returning to the classroom this year (as far as we know) and will be looking for teachers, including people to teach or help with RCIC (preparing children for the Sacraments of Initiation.) We need your help! This is an early plea, so you have time to think and pray about it! Questions? Talk to Debbie, Mary or Ana.

Do you or someone you know need to have someone bring Communion, or need a visit from a priest? Please call the rectory and let Mary know.

¿Usted o alguien que usted conoce necesita que alguien traiga la comunión, o necesita una visita de un sacerdote? Por favor llame a la rectoría y hágale saber a Mary.

SCOTT HAHN'S REFLECTION: In commissioning the Apostles in today's Gospel, Jesus gives them, and us, a preview of His Church's mission after the Resurrection.

His instructions to the Twelve echo those of God to the twelve tribes of Israel on the eve of their exodus from Egypt. The Israelites likewise were sent out with no bread and only one set of clothes, wearing sandals and carrying a staff (see Exodus 12:11; Deuteronomy 8:2-4). Like the Israelites, the Apostles are to rely solely on the providence of God and His grace.

Perhaps, also, Mark wants us to see the Apostles' mission, the mission of the Church, as that of leading a new exodus—delivering people from their exile from God and bringing them to the promised land, the kingdom of heaven.

Like Amos in today's First Reading, the Apostles are not "professionals" who earn their bread by prophesying. Like Amos, they are simply men (see Acts 14:15) summoned from their ordinary jobs and sent by God to be shepherds of their brothers and sisters.

Again this week, we hear the theme of rejection: Amos experiences it, and Jesus warns the Apostles that some will not welcome or listen to them. The Church is called not necessarily to be successful but only to be faithful to God's command.

With authority and power given to her by Jesus, the Church proclaims God's peace and salvation to those who believe in Him, as we sing in today's Psalm.

This word of truth, this Gospel of salvation, is addressed to each of us, personally, as Paul proclaims in today's Epistle. In the mystery of God's will, we have been chosen from before the foundation of the world—to be His sons and daughters, to live for the praise of His glory.

Let us, then, give thanks for the Church today, and for the spiritual blessings He has bestowed upon us. Let us resolve to further the Church's mission—to help others hear the call to repentance and welcome Christ into their lives.
