RESPECT LIFE MONTH

St. Joseph, defender of life, pray for us!

Mission statement

St. Pius X, two communities, divided by language and culture, but united in one faith. We strive to lead others to a personal relationship with Jesus, especially in the Eucharist. We are renewing ourselves through prayer, faith sharing and small communities. We model who Jesus is through caring, healing, socializing, teaching and ministering to one another.

San Pio X, dos comunidades, separadas por la lengua y la cultura, unidas por una sola fe. Nos esforzamos por conducir a otros a una relación personal con Jesús, especialmente en la Eucaristía. Nos estamos renovando por medio de la oración, y por pequeñas comunidades que comparten su fe. Mostramos lo que es la persona de Jesús cuidando, sanando, socializando, enseñando y sirviéndonos unos a otros.

SCOTT HAHN'S REFLECTION ON TODAY'S READINGS....

In today's Gospel, the Pharisees try to trap Jesus with a trick question.

The "lawfulness" of divorce in Israel was never an issue. Moses had long ago allowed it (see Deuteronomy 24:1-4). But Jesus points His enemies back before Moses, to "the beginning," interpreting the text we hear in today's First Reading.

Divorce violates the order of creation, He says. Moses permitted it only as a concession to the people's "hardness of heart"—their inability to live by God's covenant Law. But Jesus comes to fulfill the Law, to reveal its true meaning and purpose, and to give people the grace to keep God's commands.

Marriage, He reveals, is a sacrament, a divine, life-giving sign. Through the union of husband and wife, God intended to bestow His blessings on the human family—making it fruitful, multiplying it until it filled the earth (see Genesis 1:28).

That's why today's Gospel moves so easily from a debate about marriage to Jesus' blessing of children. Children are blessings the Father bestows on couples who walk in His ways, as we sing in today's Psalm.

Marriage also is a sign of God's new covenant. As today's Epistle hints, Jesus is the new Adam—made a little lower than the angels, born of a human family (see Romans 5:14; Psalm 8:5-7). The Church is the new Eve, the "woman" born of Christ's pierced side as He hung in the sleep of death on the Cross (see John 19:34; Revelation 12:1-17).

Through the union of Christ and the Church as "one flesh," God's plan for the world is fulfilled (see Ephesians 5:21-32). Eve was "mother of all the living" (see Genesis 3:20). And in Baptism, we are made sons and daughters of the Church, children of the Father, heirs of the eternal glory He intended for the human family in the beginning.

The challenge for us is to live as children of the kingdom, growing up ever more faithful in our love and devotion to the ways of Christ and the teachings of His Church.

"If we love one another, God remains in us and his love is brought to perfection in us." - 1 John 4:12
