Mission statement

St. Pius X, two communities, divided by language and culture, but united in one faith. We strive to lead others to a personal relationship with Jesus, especially in the Eucharist. We are renewing ourselves through prayer, faith sharing and small communities. We model who Jesus is through caring, healing, socializing, teaching and ministering to one another.

San Pio X, dos comunidades, separadas por la lengua y la cultura, unidas por una sola fe. Nos esforzamos por conducir a otros a una relación personal con Jesús, especialmente en la Eucaristía. Nos estamos renovando por medio de la oración, y por pequeñas comunidades que comparten su fe. Mostramos lo que es la persona de Jesús cuidando, sanando, socializando, enseñando y sirviéndonos unos a otros.

In case you were wondering.....

- The dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass, will end the First Sunday of Advent, November 28, 2021.
- Communion Under Both Species will be restored on Easter Sunday, April 17.
- We are to continue following the facial covering guidance issued by the Bishop's Office August 20, 2021, until such time as the state ends the requirement put into place August 19, 2021.
(Taken from the Bishop's decree dated September 10, 2021)

We look forward to welcoming back all of our parishioners and will likely discontinue streaming the Mass at that time. Fr. Mario tentatively plans to return to our regular pre-pandemic Mass schedule the first of the year – meaning the 7:00 p.m. Vigil Mass on Saturday will go back to English. All of this is subject to change, depending on the pandemic, but we are hopeful!

“Be vigilant at all times and pray that you have the strength to stand before the Son of Man.” – Mark 13:24-27

Por si te lo estabas preguntando.....

- La dispensa de la obligación de asistir a la misa dominical, termina el primer domingo de Adviento, 28 de noviembre de 2021.
- La comunión bajo ambas especies se restaurará el Domingo de Pascua, 17 de abril.
- Continuaremos siguiendo la guía de cobertura facial emitida por la Oficina del Obispo el 20 de agosto de 2021, hasta el momento en que el estado finalice el requisito establecido el 19 de agosto de 2021.
(Tomado del decreto del obispo del 10 de septiembre de 2021:)

Esperamos dar la bienvenida a todos nuestros feligreses y probablemente dejaremos de transmitir la Misa en ese momento. El P. Mario planea tentativamente regresar a nuestro horario regular de Misas pre-pandémicas el primero del año, lo que significa que la Misa de Vigilia de las 7:00 p.m. del sábado volverá a ser en inglés. Todo esto está sujeto a cambios, dependiendo de la pandemia, ¡pero tenemos esperanzas!

SCOTT HAHN'S REFLECTION ON TODAY'S READINGS....

In this, the second-to-last week of the Church year, Jesus has finally made it to Jerusalem. Near to His passion and death, He gives us a teaching of hope—telling us how it will be when He returns again in glory.

Today's Gospel is taken from the end of a long discourse in which He describes tribulations the likes of which haven't been seen "since the beginning of God's creation" (see Mark 13:9). He describes what amounts to a dissolution of God's creation, a "devolution" of the world to its original state of formlessness and void.

First, human community—nations and kingdoms—will break down (see Mark 13:7-8). Then the earth will stop yielding food and begin to shake apart (13:8). Next, the family will be torn apart from within and the last faithful individuals will be persecuted (13:9-13). Finally, the Temple will be desecrated, the earth emptied of God's presence (13:14).

In today's reading, God is described putting out the lights that He established in the sky in the very beginning—the sun, the moon and the stars (see also Isaiah 13:10; 34:4). Into this "uncreated" darkness, the Son of Man, in whom all things were made, will come.

Jesus has already told us that the Son of Man must be humiliated and killed (see Mark 8:31). Here He describes His ultimate victory, using royal-divine images drawn from the Old Testament—clouds, glory, and angels (see Daniel 7:13). He shows Himself to be the fulfillment of all God's promises to save "the elect," the faithful remnant (see Isaiah 43:6; Jeremiah 32:37).

As today's First Reading tells us, this salvation will include the bodily resurrection of those who sleep in the dust.

We are to watch for this day, when His enemies are finally made His footstool, as today's Epistle envisions. We can wait in confidence knowing, as we pray in today's Psalm, that we will one day delight at His right hand forever.
