The Month of February is Dedicated to the Holy Family

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I give you my heart and my soul.

Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent, is February 26. Lent will end on Holy Saturday, April 9.

*On Ash Wednesday people receive ashes in the form of a cross on their foreheads. The people who distribute the ashes make the Sign of the Cross and say: Turn away from sin and be faithful to the gospel [adapted from Mark 1:15] or Remember, you are dust and to dust you will return [adapted from Genesis 3:19]. The ashes are made from palms left over from the previous year's Palm Sunday.

Lord, Teach me a new freedom. Freedom to reject comparison and to embrace uniqueness. Freedom to cut ties with greed and feast on love. Freedom to abstain from over indulgence and feast on self-control. Freedom to leave behind selfish thoughts and to focus on the needs of others. Freedom to fend off insecurity and to embrace grace. Lord, at this time of Lent, Thank you for the freedom you bring. Amen. (a Lenten prayer for young people from www.lords-prayer-words.com)

p.s. ♥ Happy St. Valentine's Day!

In the days prior to Lent, try one or more of these suggestions from: IgnatiansSpirituality.com	Ask God, every day, "What does my soul need?" Just ask and wait quietly. Because we're very good at fooling ourselves about how we're doing it might take several days of praying this question before we're truly open and humble enough to know the answer.	Ask God, every day, "What about my life makes you happy?" When God looks at your life, some parts of it - perhaps many aspects of it - bring joy to God's heart. God is in a relationship with you, which means that your sins grieve God's heart, but also that your growth and love and freedom and kindness bring joy to God of the universe.	Tell God, and yourself, every day, "I want to be open to the graces of this Lenten season." Maybe you're not open right now, or you're not as open and willing as you'd like to be or think you should be. We can always open our lives a bit more, let go of more stuff, listen better, and do more quickly and passionately what we know helps nurture God's kingdom on earth.	This is a beginning: Three short and simple prayer starters to ready yourself for the holy season.
