RCIA

So who am I? For these last three weeks the writings were to encourage you to open your minds and think “Who am I?” We have free will to be whatever we want to be by using the gifts (capabilities) given us by God. To be this earthly choice (doctor, baker, etc.) we prepare by reading, studying, and practicing, until we can effectively accomplish our goal. To reach our spiritual goal (heaven), we do the same thing, read, study, and practice by following the commandments of God and His Church. We will lead a good life on this earth and eventually be with our heavenly Father for all eternity. Please take some time this week to think about where you came from, the twists and turns of your earthly journey this far and the destination you hope to arrive at when your journey is complete; that is when your earthly life is done and your life in eternity begins. To better understand “Who am I”, you are more than welcome to come to RCIA classes which begin on September 28th at 7pm in St. Mary’s school cafeteria. Want to know more about your Catholic Faith and why we should attend Church? All are welcome and there is no charge. Any questions, see Father Chris or Deacon Hank.

HOME SCHOOL OPEN HOUSE
