Love

FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Reading I: Isaiah 7: 10-14

This famous prophecy made before King Ahaz is one that he rejected. The Church views Christ's birth from the Virgin Mother as the fulfillment of Isaiah's words in history.

Reading II: Romans 1: 1-7

St. Paul, calling himself "a slave of Christ," also describes himself as an apostle chosen by God. He stresses that the gospel is part of a divine plan. Paul flatters his Roman community as "holy called ones."

The Gospel: Matthew 1: 18-24

Matthew quotes today's First Reading as he presents Jesus' birth as the fulfillment of Israel's hope. Writing for a largely Jewish audience, he makes St. Joseph the central active adult figure in the story.

Christmas Food Drive

As we approach another Holiday season, and begin preparing for Christmas festivities, and family gatherings, we must take a moment to think of those in our community, who are in need. Each year, more and more families are in need of a little extra assistance, especially around the holidays. Please help us to continue to stock the Food Pantry at the United Methodist Church in Highland Mills. We are also accepting donations of turkeys. Gift cards to our local supermarkets are also welcomed. Donations can be dropped off in the basket at the back of the church. Turkeys and gift cards should be dropped off in the parish office. For more information, please contact Margie at the parish office at 845-928-6027.

Highland Mills Food Pantry

Please place your non-perishable food items in the basket at the church entrance. The Highland Mills Methodist Church is open Saturdays from 10am – 11am for people to receive food packages. The pantry serves between 30-40 Woodbury families every week. For more information, call 928-6177.

Town of Woodbury Friendly Visitor Program

In our town, many older adults and those who have disabilities, live alone and enjoy their independence. Unfortunately, some are isolated, separated from their families or need a caring friend.

Our Friendly Visitor Program is committed to supporting our residents by helping them remain in their homes. We do this by matching local volunteers with the residents that need supports.

Please consider becoming a Friendly Visitor Volunteer. For more information and to register, call (845) 928-7578 or email woodburyfvp@yahoo.com.

The Power of Prayer

A Short Prayer & Reflection for the 4th Sunday of Advent

Reflection

"The spirit of Advent largely consists in living close to Our Lady during this time when she is carrying Jesus in her womb. We can think of the whole of our life as a somewhat longer Advent, a time of waiting for that definitive moment when we will at last find ourselves with God forever. The Christian knows that he has to live this advent beside Our Lady every day of his life if he wants to be certain of attaining the only thing in the whole of his existence that is really important—finding Christ in his life, and afterwards being with him in eternity. There is no better way of preparing for Christmas, which is now so close, than by keeping Mary company, getting to know her and deepening our love and trust in her. Mary imparts a great joy to our souls, because when we turn to her she leads us to Christ. "

~from In Conversation with God, Daily Meditations, Volume One: Advent and Christmastide

Prayer

"O Creator God, our world is pregnant with the anticipation of the birth of your Son. We are bursting in our preparedness, for the feast of Christmas will soon be here. Everything seems to be in order: the plans are agreed to, the tree is decorated, most of the gifts are wrapped, and we think we are ready. However, Lord, as we pause to offer this prayer, we realize that some things have been rushed, and, in the process, some important things have been forgotten. In this brief moment of quiet, help us to be at least thankful. Help us to appreciate the Word that comes to dwell with us. Help us to hope in the promise of His way, truth, and life. Help us to join with the angels who sing your praise. Grant us the lasting peace of this great season of joy. We pray in the name of our long-expected Lord. Amen."

~ from The Essential Advent and Christmas Handbook

A Christmas Day Prayer

Praise to You, Lord God!

You have become one of us.
You have become a human being,
while still retaining all your power and holiness
as God!

You, O Lord, made the journey of the unborn child.

By being an embryo, a fetus, and a newborn, you joined all unborn and newborn children to you!

From the beginning of history, O Lord,
You were the Creator of every human life.

Now, with Christmas,
You join Yourself in an unthinkable way with the life You created.

Let this Christmas, O God, fill all of us with awe and wonder at how close human life is to You.
Cleanse the world of all that tarnishes
and rejects this gift.

Purify our hearts of all that fears this gift.

Let our Christmas joy be the joy of welcoming every human life!

Amen!

Upcoming Feast Days

St. Stephen - Dec. 26th

Saint Stephen was one of the first ordained deacons of the Church. He was also the first Christian martyr. The Greek word from which we derive the English word martyr literally means witness. In that sense, every Christian is called to bear witness to Jesus Christ, in both their words and their actions. Not all are asked to shed their blood.

St. John, Apostle & Evangelist - Dec. 27th

St. John the Apostle, the son of Zebedee and Salome, was one of the Twelve Apostles of Jesus. John was called to be an Apostle by our Lord in the first year of His public ministry. He is considered the same person as John the Evangelist, John of Patmos and the Beloved Disciple. John's older brother was St. James the Great, another one of Jesus' Twelve Apostles. Jesus referred to the brothers as "Boanerges," meaning "sons of thunder." John is believed to be the longest living apostle and the only not to die a martyr's death.
