PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

Reading I: Malachi 3: 1-4

The “messenger,” (which is what “Malachi” means in English), speaks in the fourth of six oracles about the coming of the Lord to the Temple, and what it will mean. There will be future judgment that will result in a purification of the people.

Reading II: Hebrews 2: 14-18

A convincing reason for Jesus to share in our human nature was that by experiencing suffering and death He was able to destroy the devil and free us from the slavery involved in fearing death.

The Gospel: Luke 2: 22-40, or 2: 22-32

Luke lets us “meet” two holy people, “senior citizens” if you will, whose lives were centered around the Temple: Simeon and Anna. Simeon’s request to live to see the Messiah was answered on the day of Jesus’ presentation, and so he can recite his “Nunc Dimittis,” i.e. “Now you may dismiss your servant.” Meanwhile the holy widow Anna speaks about this Child, Jesus, as the personification of Israel’s hope.

The Power of Prayer

Prayer for the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord

O Blessed Mother, the sword is already in your heart. You foreknow the future of the Fruit of your womb. May our fidelity in following Him through the coming mysteries of His public life bring some alleviations to the sorrows of your maternal heart.

A Morning Prayer for God's Presence

Lord may nothing separate me from You today. Teach me how to choose only Your way today so each step will lead me closer to You. Help me walk by the Word and not my feelings. Help me to keep my heart pure and undivided. Protect me from my own careless thoughts, words, and actions. And keep me from being distracted by MY wants, MY desires, MY thoughts on how things should be. Help me to embrace what comes my way as an opportunity... rather than a personal inconvenience. And finally, help me to rest in the truth of Psalm 86:13, 'Great is your love toward me.' You already see the ways I will fall short and mess up. But right now, I consciously tuck Your whisper of absolute love for me into the deepest part of my heart. I recognize Your love for me is not based on my performance. You love me warts and all. That's amazing. But what's most amazing is that the Savior of the world would desire a few minutes with me this morning. Lord, help me to forever remember what a gift it is to sit with You like this. Amen.

A Morning Prayer for Strength

Lord, I am weary and don't know when this "race" will end in my life. I feel like I've been running forever, trying to outrun this trial. Help me to stop trying to outrun my pain but rather run with endurance the race you have set before me. I know that because of you I am ultimately a victor over the trials in my life. I know that nothing in this world can separate me from your steadfast love. Please give me a measure of your love today; give me the strength to endure this trial. Thank you for your love for me that never ends! And thank you for the crown of joy that awaits me forever in your Kingdom.

Upcoming Feast Days

St. Blaise – Feb. 3rd

St. Agatha – Feb. 5th

St. Paul Miki and Companions – Feb. 6th

Prayer St. Blaise

O glorious Saint Blaise, who by thy martyrdom has left to the Church, a precious witness to the faith, obtain for us the grace to preserve within ourselves this divine gift, and to defend, without human respect, both by word and example, the truth of that same faith, which is so wickedly attacked and slandered in these our times. Thou who didst miraculously cure a little child when it was at the point of death by reason of an affliction of the throat, grant us thy powerful protection in like misfortunes; and, above all, obtain for us the grace of Christian mortification together with a faithful observance of the precepts of the Church, which may keep us from offending Almighty God. Amen.

About St. Paul & Companions

Paul and his thirty-six companions were Christian soldiers of the Roman Army stationed in Egypt at an unknown date sometime during the Roman Empire's occupation of the country. Paul proposed to his fellow soldiers that they should form themselves into a confraternity to evangelize those in Egypt who were not yet Christian. Taking Paul as their leader in this endeavor, the men all agreed to participate. They divided themselves into four bands in the hope of canvassing the whole country with the Gospel. Paul and nine companions headed east. A second contingent with nine men went north, a third band of nine traveled south, and a fourth group of nine headed west. Upon learning of this endeavor from an informer, the pagan governor of Egypt commanded the arrest of all the soldiers involved. They were brought to Alexandria, where the governor, upon seeing them, ordered their immediate execution. The contingent of men that Paul had led eastward together with those sent south were put to death by fire. Those of the northern band were beheaded, while those of the western contingent were crucified.

Prayer for the Unborn

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life, of the unborn child that I have spiritually adopted, whose life is in danger of abortion. (Please offer this prayer daily for the unborn.)
