SUNDAY OF DIVINE MERCY

Reading I: Acts 2: 42-47

The post Easter activities of the early Church always included “the Breaking of the Bread and prayers.” The ideal community lives out their beliefs. The Holy Spirit works through them, and as a result, the young Church starts to grow.

Reading II: I Peter 1-9

Peter urges the flock to be faithful to Jesus, even though they have not seen Him. They also may have to “suffer through various trials” because of their faith.

The Gospel: John 20: 19-31

On Easter evening Jesus appears to the disciples, and immediately offers them peace. Then He commissions them to go out into the world and spread the Good News. St. Thomas misses this event, and when told about it, expresses his characteristic doubt. A week later, Jesus again appears and confronts Thomas about His doubting. In return, a humbled Thomas makes a profound and beautiful act of faith.

About St. Marian...

When St. Mamertinus was Abbot of the monastery which St. Germanus had founded at Auxerre, there came to him a young man called Marcian (also known as Marian), a fugitive from Bourges then occupied by the Visigoths. St. Mamertinus gave him the habit, and the novice edified all his piety and obedience. The Abbot, wishing to test him, gave him the lowest possible post - that of cowman and shepherd in the Abbey farm at Merille. Marcian accepted the work cheerfully, and it was noticed that the beast under his charge thrived and multiplied astonishingly. He seemed to have a strange power over all animals. The birds flocked to eat out of his hands: bears and wolves departed at his command; and when a hunted wild boar fled to him for protection, he defended it from its assailants and set it free. After his death, the Abbey took the name of the humble monk. His feast day is April 20th.

The Power of Prayer

Pope Francis' Prayer to Mary During Coronavirus Pandemic

O Mary,
you always shine on our path
as a sign of salvation and hope.
We entrust ourselves to you,
health of the Sick,
who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain,
keeping your faith firm.

You,
Salvation of Your People, know what we need,
and we are sure you will provide so that,
as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial.

Help us,
Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings
and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection.
Amen.

Under your protection,
we seek refuge,
Holy Mother of God.
Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial,
but deliver us from every danger,
O glorious and blessed Virgin.
Amen.

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally,
Come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already there
And unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

O Lord behold here before You a soul who exists in this world in order to allow You to exercise Your admirable mercy and manifest it before heaven and earth. Others may glorify You through their faithfulness and perseverance, thus making evident the power of Your grace. How sweet and generous You are to those who are faithful to You! Nevertheless, I will glorify You by acquainting others of Your goodness to sinners and by reminding them that Your mercy is above all malice, that nothing can exhaust it, and that no relapse, no matter how shameful or criminal, should allow the sinner to despair of forgiveness. I have offended You grievously, O Beloved Redeemer, but it would be still worse if I were to offend You by thinking that You were lacking in goodness to forgive me. I would rather He deprive me of everything else than the trust I have in Your Mercy.
Should I fall a hundred times or should my crimes be a hundred times worse than they actually are, I would continue to trust in Your mercy.
Amen.
