FROM THE PASTOR’S DESK . . .

Early CCD registration ended June 30. There is a late registration period that extends from July 1-31. (see the bulletin for details) We have begun making preparations for the upcoming CCD year based on our numbers from early registration. (Keep in mind that registration forms have been available to you since March.) With the COVID-19 pandemic there will be certain restrictions that we have to consider as we prepare for the coming year. Preliminary recommendations from the Diocese of Victoria say it will be necessary to maintain social distancing during the Faith formation process. That means we may have to limit the amount of students we can take in each classroom due to available space. Maintaining social distancing is possible with the current registration numbers.

We will have to assess any additional students who register after June 30. At this point we cannot guarantee that we will be able to accommodate every late registration due to the social distancing restrictions. We encourage you to register during this late registration period. Further assessment will be made at the end of July on how we will conduct Religious Education during the Fall.

If we have to add additional classes to maintain social distancing we will need additional teachers and aides. It is my expectation that those parents registering late would be willing to assist with the extra demand for personnel. It’s difficult for me to ask our current Catechists to take on additional responsibilities. As you know, I deeply appreciate all those who help with religious education.

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Readings for JULY 12: 15th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

1st Reading: Isaiah 55:10-11

Thus says the LORD: Just as from the heavens the rain and snow come down and do not return there till they have watered the earth, making it fertile and fruitful, giving seed to the one who sows and bread to the one who eats, so shall my word be that goes forth from my mouth; my word shall not return to me void, but shall do my will, achieving the end for which I sent it.

2nd Reading: Romans 8:18-23

Brothers and sisters: I consider that the sufferings of this present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us. For creation awaits with eager expectation the revelation of the children of God; for creation was made subject to futility, not of its own accord but because of the one who subjected it, in hope that creation itself would be set free from slavery to corruption and share in the glorious freedom of the children of God. We know that all creation is groaning in labor pains even until now; and not only that, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, we also groan within ourselves as we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies.

Gospel: Matthew 13:1-23

On that day, Jesus went out of the house and sat down by the sea. Such large crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat down, and the whole crowd stood along the shore. And he spoke to them at length in parables, saying: "A sower went out to sow. And as he sowed, some seed fell on the path, and birds came and ate it up. Some fell on rocky ground, where it had little soil. It sprang up at once because the soil was not deep, and when the sun rose it was scorched, and it withered for lack of roots. Some seed fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it. But some seed fell on rich soil, and produced fruit, a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold. Whoever has ears ought to hear." The disciples approached him and said, "Why do you speak to them in parables?" He said to them in reply, "Because knowledge of the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven has been granted to you, but to them it has not been granted. To anyone who has, more will be given and he will grow rich; from anyone who has not, even what he has will be taken away. This is why I speak to them in parables, because they look but do not see and hear but do not listen or understand. Isaiah's prophecy is fulfilled in them, which says: You shall indeed hear but not understand, you shall indeed look but never see. Gross is the heart of this people, they will hardly hear with their ears, they have closed their eyes, lest they see with their eyes and hear with their ears and understand with their hearts and be converted, and I heal them. "But blessed are your eyes, because they see, and your ears, because they hear. Amen, I say to you, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it. "Hear then the parable of the sower. The seed sown on the path is the one who hears the word of the kingdom without understanding it, and the evil one comes and steals away what was sown in his heart. The seed sown on rocky ground is the one who hears the word and receives it at once with joy. But he has no root and lasts only for a time. When some tribulation or persecution comes because of the word, he immediately falls away. The seed sown among thorns is the one who hears the word, but then worldly anxiety and the lure of riches choke the word and it bears no fruit. But the seed sown on rich soil is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold."
