PARISH RAFFLE

Special thanks to everyone who donated prizes! The drawing will be Sunday, August 15. Tickets will be printed and available soon and distributed to each household.

Today, Almighty God, as we observe Father's Day, we lift up all the fathers of this world to You with adoration and love. Fathers play an integral role in the lives of our children, as mentors, providers, caregivers, and so much more and also provide a firm foundation on which our children stand. Thank You God for Your provision and for showering them with Your divine blessings. Amen.

FATHER GREG'S INSTALLATION

Join us on Wednesday, June 23, at the 6:00 p.m. Mass. Bishop Brendan Cahill will officially install Father Greg as Pastor. A reception will follow in the Parish hall.

Reminder: 4th Degree KCs are asked to meet at 5:30 p.m. in Church.

A VOCATION REFLECTION

Did you know that you can play a role in promoting vocations to the priesthood? Although Catholics do not typically see it as their role to encourage vocations, men are nearly twice as likely to consider a vocation when encouraged by another person. People who are encouraged by three persons are five times more likely to consider a vocation than someone who was not encouraged by anyone. If you know of someone who may be interested in a priestly vocation, call Father Tommy Chen, 361-552-6140 or Father Kristopher Fuchs, 361-573-4328.

CONGRATULATIONS!

To Trace Roznovsky who was recently inducted into the Knights of Columbus Council #3204.; may he follow in his Grandfather and Father's footsteps. Blessings!

PRO-LIFE CORNER

If true freedom involves responsible choice, then it also demands that we see things as they are. By choosing abortion a woman chooses to kill her child and end posterity.

ASSUMPTION PARISH TRAVELING ROSARY TAPESTRY

A traveling Rosary Tapestry is available to be hosted in our homes. The Tapestry is a picture of the Blessed Virgin and the Child Jesus handing a Rosary and scapular to Saints Dominic and Catherine. It is blessed by Pope Francis, Bishop Brendan Cahill, and Father Kirby Hlavaty. The hosting family should hang the tapestry in a prominent place in their home and say the family Rosary in front of the Tapestry. Contact Rose Chovanec (361-771-3087) to host the Tapestry.

YEAR OF ST. JOSEPH

Suggested Activity For Father's Day

A Child's Prayer for a Father

Dear St. Joseph, help my dad to be a good father. Help him when he is tired, when he is worried, when he is in a hurry. Give him pride in his work and a little more time to have fun. Help me to show my dad how much I love him. Amen.

CONSIDER BECOMING A CCD TEACHER

It has been a long tradition at Assumption Church that our parish family has offered their time and talents. It is through caring, sharing, and praying, that our community has grown in love and support of one another. The CCD Program could not exist if it were not for the efforts of our volunteers. In response to this need, we ask you to volunteer. Teachers and aides are needed for all grade levels.

Please Note: ALL volunteers must have the following two requirements done prior to the start of CCD: Safe Environment background check and in-class training. Please contact Joey Sablatura to volunteer or for more information.

2021-2022 REGISTRATION FORMS

Family registration forms for the coming CCD year are available in Church. Please fill out and return with the fee of $25 per family to Joey at the St. John Paul II Family Center.

NINE TIPS TO CURB YOUR DISTRACTIONS

AT MASS

by Gretchen Filz

7. Intentionally add your intentions and sacrifices to the prayers of the Mass.

Two things that you can bring with you to every Mass are the special intentions that you're praying for, and the personal sacrifices that you're uniting to Christ's one great sacrifice. Both come together as you "offer it up" at Mass. At the point before the Consecration when the priest says, "Pray brethren, that my sacrifice AND YOURS may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father," consciously think of what these things are for you.

8. Memorize the Anima Christi Prayer

The Anima Christi is a beautiful Communion prayer dating to the middle ages. Pray these words very slowly as a meditation to keep your mind focused on what Christ is doing in your soul at your reception of every Holy Communion. Do this enough times and you'll soon have it memorized.

Anima Christi: Soul of Christ, sanctify me. Body of Christ, save me. Blood of Christ, inebriate me. Water from the side of Christ, wash me. Passion of Christ, strengthen me. O Good Jesus, hear me. Within your wounds hide me. Permit me not to be separated from you. From the wicked foe, defend me. At the hour of my death, call me and bid me come to you. That with your saints I may praise you For ever and ever. Amen.

9. Ask for help.

If you want help keeping the distractions away during Mass, just ask! Your Guardian Angel exists to help you with things like this. Simply and humbly ask your guardian angel, who is adoring Christ in the eternal Mass along with you, to assist you in praying well and staying attentive.

Readings for JUNE 27:

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

1st Reading: Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24

God did not make death, nor does he rejoice in the destruction of the living. For he fashioned all things that they might have being; and the creatures of the world are wholesome, and there is not a destructive drug among them nor any domain of the netherworld on earth, for justice is undying. For God formed man to be imperishable; the image of his own nature he made him. But by the envy of the devil, death entered the world, and they who belong to his company experience it.

2nd Reading: 2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15

Brothers and sisters: As you excel in every respect, in faith, discourse, knowledge, all earnestness, and in the love we have for you, may you excel in this gracious act also. For you know the gracious act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. Not that others should have relief while you are burdened, but that as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their needs, so that their abundance may also supply your needs, that there may be equality. As it is written:

*Whoever had much did not have more,
and whoever had little did not have less.*

Gospel: Mark 5:21-24, 35-

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around him, and he stayed close to the sea. One of the synagogue officials, named Jairus, came forward. Seeing him he fell at his feet and pleaded earnestly with him, saying, "My daughter is at the point of death. Please, come lay your hands on her that she may get well and live." He went off with him, and a large crowd followed him and pressed upon him. While he was still speaking, people from the synagogue official's house arrived and said, "Your daughter has died; why trouble the teacher any longer?" Disregarding the message that was reported, Jesus said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid; just have faith." He did not allow anyone to accompany him inside except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, "Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep." And they ridiculed him. Then he put them all out. He took along the child's father and mother and those who were with him and entered the room where the child was. He took the child by the hand and said to her, "Talitha koum," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise!" The girl, a child of twelve, arose immediately and walked around. At that they were utterly astounded. He gave strict orders that no one should know this and said that she should be given something to eat.
