CROSS CATHOLIC OUTREACH

Please welcome Father Alan Bower who will visit our parish next weekend, July 3 & 4. He comes to us from Cross Catholic Outreach and will share some touching stories about the amazing work Catholic missions are accomplishing worldwide. Since Cross Catholic Outreach empowers existing Catholic missions, its programs are extremely cost-effective, and the majority of the resources it collects go into program services that help the poorest of the poor around the world. To learn more about Cross Catholic Outreach, please go to CrossCatholic.org/outreach.

CONSIDER BECOMING A CCD TEACHER

It has been a long tradition at Assumption Church that our parish family has offered their time and talents. It is through caring, sharing, and praying, that our community has grown in love and support of one another. The CCD Program could not exist if it were not for the efforts of our volunteers. In response to this need, we ask you to volunteer. Teachers and aides are needed for all grade levels.

Please Note: ALL volunteers must have the following two requirements done prior to the start of CCD: Safe Environment background check and in-class training. Please contact Joey Sablatura to volunteer or for more information.

2021-2022 REGISTRATION FORMS

Family registration forms for the coming CCD year are available in Church. Please fill out and return with the fee of $25 per family to Joey at the St. John Paul II Family Center.

Thank you to all the families who have returned registration paperwork. We want to see all the children return to class so don't delay in signing up. As of this date we have a total of 56 elementary students, 17 Junior High, and 36 High School.

Readings for JULY 4

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

1st Reading: Ezekiel 2:2-5

As the LORD spoke to me, the spirit entered into me and set me on my feet, and I heard the one who was speaking say to me:
Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites,
rebels who have rebelled against me;
they and their ancestors have revolted against me
to this very day.

Hard of face and obstinate of heart
are they to whom I am sending you.

But you shall say to them:

Thus says the LORD GOD!

And whether they heed or resist

—for they are a rebellious house—

they shall know that a prophet has been among them.

2nd Reading: 2 Corinthians 12:7-10

Brothers and sisters:

That I, Paul, might not become too elated,
because of the abundance of the revelations,
a thorn in the flesh was given to me, an angel of Satan, to beat me, to keep me from being too elated.

Three times I begged the Lord about this,
that it might leave me,

but he said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you,
for power is made perfect in weakness.”

I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses, in order that the power of Christ may dwell with me.

Therefore, I am content with weaknesses, insults,
hardships, persecutions, and constraints,
for the sake of Christ;

for when I am weak, then I am strong.

Gospel: Mark 6:1-6

Jesus departed from there and came to his native place, accompanied by his disciples.

When the sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue and many who heard him were astonished. They said, “Where did this man get all this? What kind of wisdom has been given him?

What mighty deeds are wrought by his hands!

Is he not the carpenter, the son of Mary,
and the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us?”

And they took offense at him. Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his native
place and among his own kin and in his own house.”

So he was not able to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them.

He was amazed at their lack of faith.
