CROSS CATHOLIC OUTREACH

Last weekend we were blessed to have with us Father Alan Bower from Cross Catholic Outreach.

More than ever poor families in developing countries are depending on Catholic missions for assistance with food, water, shelter, medical care and spiritual nourishment.

It's not too late to support Cross Catholic Outreach and the efforts of these vital international missions. Brochures with a donation envelope are on the cabinets in Church if you wish to support this worthy Catholic ministry. For more information on Cross Catholic Outreach, please go to CrossCatholic.org/outreach or text BLESSINGS to 474747.

HELP! HELP! HELP!

The 2021-2022 CCD schedule begins Wednesday, September 1. While we look forward to offering classes as we have in the past -- we need teachers and aides for EVERY GRADE LEVEL!

God asks each of us to use our talents to help others grow in a deeper relationship with Him. Helping a child learn what that means through faith formation, sacramental preparation, and youth ministry events is a gift both given and received.

Please prayerfully consider helping with our CCD program this year. Contact Joey Sablatura to volunteer or for more information.

2021-2022 REGISTRATION FORMS

Family registration forms for the 2021-2022 CCD year are available in Church. Please fill out and return with the fee of $50 per family to Joey at the St. John Paul II Family Center.

A VOCATION REFLECTION

"...and I will give you rest." Ask in prayer if God may be inviting you to consider a life of peace and rest. Call Father Tommy Chen, 361-552-6140, or Father Kristopher Fuchs, 361-573-4328.

VOCATION STATISTICS

Although Catholics do not typically see it as their role to encourage vocations, women and men are nearly twice as likely to consider a vocation when encouraged by another person. The effect is additive. People who are encouraged by three persons are five times more likely to consider a vocation than someone who was not encouraged by anyone.

THE PRO-LIFE CORNER

Pro-choice is a play on words that has cost 64,000,000 million lives in America since 1973 through surgical abortion. Pro-choice is no choice for the pre-born, it's always death to the baby.

Are you new to the Parish? Has your address changed? If so, stop by or call the Parish Office (771-3425) and let us know.

READINGS for JULY 18: SIXTEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

1st Reading: Jeremiah 23:1-6

Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock of my pasture, says the LORD. Therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, against the shepherds who shepherd my people: You have scattered my sheep and driven them away. You have not cared for them, but I will take care to punish your evil deeds. I myself will gather the remnant of my flock from all the lands to which I have driven them and bring them back to their meadow; there they shall increase and multiply. I will appoint shepherds for them who will shepherd them so that they need no longer fear and tremble; and none shall be missing, says the LORD. Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will raise up a righteous shoot to David; as king he shall reign and govern wisely, he shall do what is just and right in the land. In his days Judah shall be saved, Israel shall dwell in security. This is the name they give him: "The LORD our justice."

2nd Reading: Ephesians 2:13-18

Brothers and sisters: In Christ Jesus you who once were far off have become near by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, he who made both one and broke down the dividing wall of enmity, through his flesh, abolishing the law with its commandments and legal claims, that he might create in himself one new person in place of the two, thus establishing peace, and might reconcile both with God, in one body, through the cross, putting that enmity to death by it. He came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near, for through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father.

Gospel: Mark 6:30-34

The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." People were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat. So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place. People saw them leaving and many came to know about it. They hastened there on foot from all the towns and arrived at the place before them. When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.
