“INTO THE BREACH”

Monday, October 18

6:30-8:00 p.m.

ROC Room – JPII Family Center
Session #4 – Fatherhood

Cristofer Pereyra speaks of the father’s role in protecting his children from what they are exposed to through television, the internet and social media. He says fathers must be “guards in the doors of our children’s souls.” Electronic devices and technology are not themselves bad, he says, “but the use that we give to technology makes all the difference.”

WHITE MASS for HEALTHCARE PROFESSIONALS

Monday, October 18 5:30 p.m.

The Cathedral of Our Lady of Victory

This Mass is offered for all those who serve our society through healthcare in so many capacities in the medical field. We pray for all those who work as physicians, nurses, researchers, housekeepers, cooks, therapists, administrators and others: may God guide their work and help them to find meaning in the service they offer.

WEEKEND RETREAT FOR PARENTS WHO HAVE LOST CHILDREN

October 29-31, 2021

Spiritual Renewal Center in Victoria, TX

Coping with the death of a child is very difficult. We are a group of parents who have lost a child and will walk this grief journey with you. Join us for a weekend that will include time to pray, reflect, and listen to speakers including clergy, licensed professional counselors (LPCs), and parents who have lost children. Questions? Contact Patricia at 979-257-9984 or Deacon Larry at 979-578-3934. Partial scholarships are available. Deadline to register is October 27. Go online to register at: www. https://victoriadiocese.org/grief-support-retreat

Grief never ends, but it changes.

It is a passage, not a place to stay.

Grief is not a sign of weakness, nor a lack of faith,
it is the price of love.

ALL SAINTS DAY MASS

Monday, November 1

Church: 8:00 a.m. Mass

A Holy Day, but the obligation to attend is lifted because in 2021 it falls on a Monday.

ALL SOULS DAY MASSES

Tuesday, November 2

Church: 8:00 a.m. Mass

Cemetery:

5:00 p.m. – Rosary and
Blessing of Graves

5:30 p.m. – Mass

There is a special envelope in your quarterly Church envelope set, and also on the cabinets in Church, that you may use to include your deceased loved ones in the Masses for all the faithful departed during November.

All Saints Day commemorates all those who have attained the beatific vision in Heaven. In the Roman Catholic Church, the next day, All Souls Day, specifically commemorates the departed faithful who have not yet been purified and reached heaven. Catholics celebrate All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day in the fundamental belief that there is a prayerful spiritual communion between those in the state of grace who have died and are either being purified in purgatory or are in heaven (the 'church penitent' and the 'church triumphant', respectively), and the 'church militant' who are the living.

A partial indulgence can be obtained by devoutly visiting a cemetery and praying for the departed, even if the prayer is only mental. One can gain a plenary indulgence visiting a cemetery each day between November 1 and November 8. These indulgences are applicable only to the Souls in Purgatory.

Ladies, please make the effort to donate. We need everyone's help to insure we have enough.

HARVEST COLLECTION

Many thanks to those who have contributed to our annual Harvest collection. As you know, this is not just for farmers, but rather an opportunity to make an end of the year contribution in thanksgiving for the blessings God has given you. This collection was established to replace the parish picnic. So if you need a benchmark for your contribution, simply decide how much you would normally donate and spend at an annual parish festival.

OCTOBER IS PRO-LIFE MONTH

As Catholics, we believe that every life is sacred, from the moment of conception until natural death. Every person is made in the image and likeness of God, and so each and every person has inherent dignity.

Readings for October 24:

30TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

1st Reading: Jeremiah 31:7-9

Thus says the LORD: Shout with joy for Jacob, exult at the head of the nations; proclaim your praise and say: The LORD has delivered his people, the remnant of Israel. Behold, I will bring them back from the land of the north; I will gather them from the ends of the world, with the blind and the lame in their midst, the mothers and those with child; they shall return as an immense throng. They departed in tears, but I will console them and guide them; I will lead them to brooks of water, on a level road, so that none shall stumble. For I am a father to Israel, Ephraim is my first-born.

2nd Reading: Hebrews 5:1-6

Brothers and sisters: Every high priest is taken from among men and made their representative before God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He is able to deal patiently with the ignorant and erring, for he himself is beset by weakness and so, for this reason, must make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people. No one takes this honor upon himself but only when called by God, just as Aaron was. In the same way, it was not Christ who glorified himself in becoming high priest, but rather the one who said to him: You are my son: this day I have begotten you; just as he says in another place: You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

Gospel: Mark 10:46-52

As Jesus was leaving Jericho with his disciples and a sizable crowd, Bartimaeus, a blind man, the son of Timaeus, sat by the roadside begging. On hearing that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, "Jesus, son of David, have pity on me." And many rebuked him, telling him to be silent. But he kept calling out all the more, "Son of David, have pity on me." Jesus stopped and said, "Call him." So they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you." He threw aside his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus. Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see." Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way.
