PROMISES

Today's liturgy is full of promises. The reading from Genesis promises a final triumph over the power of sin and a return to a new creation. The reading from Second Corinthians promises that all who follow Christ will have to struggle. It also promises, however, that we can persevere if we but recognize that Christ is within us, renewing us daily, and giving us the courage and the strength we need to endure. The Gospel promises that doing God's will makes us "family" with Jesus, who forgives all sin and triumphs over evil.

Today might be a good day for us to make some promises as well. We can promise to stop kidding ourselves about our own tendencies to selfishness and sin. We can promise ourselves to believe—really believe—that while we are not sinless, we are forgiven. We can promise ourselves to combat evil and sin by acting as sisters and brothers not only to the Lord, but to one another as well.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — After Adam and Eve eat of the forbidden fruit, the LORD God puts enmity between the serpent and the woman (Genesis 3:9-15).

Psalm — With the Lord there is mercy, and fullness of redemption (Psalm 130).

Second Reading — We have an eternal dwelling from God, not made with hands (2 Corinthians 4:13 — 5:1).

Gospel — "Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother" (Mark 3:20-35).

SAINTS AND SPECIAL OBSERVANCES

Sunday: Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Monday: St. Barnabas

Wednesday: St. Anthony of Padua

Thursday: Flag Day

Saturday: Blessed Virgin Mary

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The cathedral is a treasure in a diocese and in our tradition. It is not simply a "big church," as some say; some parish churches are larger. What makes a cathedral is the presence of the chair, called a cathedra (Latin for seat) reserved for the bishop.

There are many instances in our country of a local church (diocese) outgrowing a cathedral. In Baltimore and St. Louis, the former cathedrals are historic treasures in the heart of the old city, but new and larger structures now function as the seat of the bishop.

When a bishop dies or retires, it is said that "the seat is vacant," and when the new bishop is installed, the central ritual is the moment when the decree of the Holy Father is read and the new bishop is escorted to the cathedra. No one but the bishop sits in the cathedra during a ritual, but in Los Angeles the cathedra in the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels is accessible, and no one seems to mind when a visitor tries the cathedra out for the bishop's point of view.

ACTIONS

Actions speak louder than words; let your words teach and your actions speak.

—St. Anthony of Padua

AMERICAN FLAG

This flag, which we honor and under which we serve, is the emblem of our unity, our power, our thought and purpose as a nation. It has no other character than that which we give it from generation to generation.

PROMESAS

La liturgia de hoy está llena de promesas. La lectura del Génesis promete un final triunfante sobre el poder del pecado y un regreso a una nueva creación. La lectura de la segunda carta a los corintios promete que todo aquel que sigue a Cristo tendrá dificultades. Sin embargo, también promete, que podemos perseverar si reconocemos que Cristo está con nosotros, renovándonos cada día, y dándonos el valor y la fuerza que necesitamos para esta perseverancia. El Evangelio promete que hacer la voluntad de Dios nos hace familia con Jesús, quien perdona todos los pecados y triunfa sobre el mal.

Hoy podría ser un buen día para que también nosotros hiciéramos algunas promesas. Podemos prometer dejar de engañarnos a nosotros mismos acerca de nuestras tendencias al egoísmo y el pecado. Podemos prometernos creer —en verdad creer— que, aunque no estamos sin pecado, somos perdonados. Podemos prometernos combatir el mal y el pecado comportándonos como hermanos y hermanas no solamente con el Señor, sino con nuestros prójimos.

Miércoles: San Antonio de Padua

Jueves: Día de la Bandera

Sábado: Santa María Virgen

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Basándose en las palabras de Jesús, Mariano de Blas, compuso su canto: “Entre tus manos”. Este hermoso canto nos recuerda que “hay que morir para vivir”, es decir, que no es nada fácil ser discípulo de Jesucristo. El mismo Jesús nos pide que nos neguemos a nosotros mismos (Mateo 16:24); que carguemos la cruz para seguirlo (Marcos 8:34); que perdamos nuestra vida por su nombre (Lucas 9:24). Todo esto porque Jesús reconoce que el grano de trigo debe morir para dar vida, para multiplicarse (Juan 12:24).

El canto: “Una espiga dorada por el sol”, de Cesáreo Gabaráin, nos recuerda que los cristianos somos trigo del mismo sembrador. Es Jesús quien nos siembra, nos cultiva, nos cosecha, nos tritura, nos amasa, y nos hace un solo pan consagrado a Dios. Somos granos de trigo que, unidos formamos el pan de la comunión que es comunidad. Para esto, cada uno debe morir a sus egoísmos y preferencias. Morir a sí mismo tiene sentido cristiano, sólo si es para trabajar unidos y en la misión de Cristo, la cual es salvación del mundo y construcción del Reino de Dios.

ACCIONES

Las acciones hablan más fuerte que las palabras, deja que tus palabras enseñen y tus acciones hablen.

—San Antonio de Padua

LA BANDERA DE ESTADOS UNIDOS

Esta bandera, que honramos y bajo la cual servimos, es el emblema de nuestra unidad, nuestra fuerza, nuestro pensamiento y propósito como nación. No tiene otro carácter más que aquel que le demos de generación en generación.

CATECHISTS AND AIDS NEEDED

Faith: the Next Generation – Pass It On!
Boldly go where many have gone before and help pass on the Good News of Jesus Christ and our Catholic faith! This fall, over 650 children and young people, preschool through grade 12, will sign up to learn more about Jesus and the Catholic faith. At this time, over 300 of these children and young people have no catechist to teach them. You can help by becoming a catechist for Faith Formation. As you nurture the faith of our young, you will learn and grow as well! As one long-time catechist put it, “I learn so much from the children!” We provide you with training, materials, and support. Classes begin August 19th. If interested or for more information, contact Becky Salazar (254)349-1780 or the office.

DAILY RECITAL OF HOLY ROSARY

May was the Month of Mary. Daily Rosary every 6 pm will continue throughout the month of June. Come join us in praying the rosary every evening all throughout this month. Join us at the pavilion at 6:00 pm. Bring your children along.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

- ⇒ The parish is in need of volunteers to help clean the church, classrooms and kitchen.
- ⇒ Help with church bulletin. Anyone eager to learn the software application used to create the bulletin is encouraged to sign up for FREE computer classes. Call the church office to sign up. (254)756-2656.

C.C.E. & RCIA REGISTRATION

Registration is now open. We are taking early bird registration for CCE & RCIA classes.
CCE starts at the age of 6 years old until Confirmation. Every year they have to come back to continue learning about our Catholic Faith. Volunteers are ready to help you register your children after each mass. Space are limited in the classroom, so act now and secure a classroom chair for your children.

MEMORIAL ADS

Anyone wishing to have a memorial, business or congratulations ad printed in the church bulletin may do so by calling J.S.Paluch Co., Inc. Call: 1-800-833-5941. Anyone with a business is highly encouraged to advertise in the church bulletin.

Marriage Annulments: Father is here to help you in your marriage annulment. It is highly confidential and feel confident to visit with father with your marriage situation. Do not delay. This year is the opportune time to handle your case. Call Father at your earliest convenience.

Sacred Heart is a parish family called to be a visible sign of Christ, formed by the Word of God, strengthened by the Eucharist and empowered to serve the needs of God's people.

CONSIDER CATHOLIC SCHOOLS

Why not send your children to St. Louis and Reicher catholic schools?

ST. LOUIS
CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Our Catholic schools partnership is to support parents in sending their children to Catholic School. This initiative is not a charity but a supplemental tuition program to families who wouldn't otherwise be able to benefit from the caring environment of a Catholic School. This partnership not only provides an increase in community involvement but witness of hope for the future through faith and love. Bring a letter of acceptance to Father for an opportunity to send your children to these schools.

NEXT WEEK IS FATHER'S DAY

Next week is Father's Day. Invite your Dad with the whole family to Mass as we pray for him and his intentions.

Take him to breakfast too after Mass!!!
