23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A Labor Day reflection from the Catechism of the Catholic Church: Participation [in the common good] is achieved first of all by taking charge of the areas for which one assumes personal responsibility: by the care taken for the education of his family, by conscientious work, and so forth, man participates in the good of others and of society (#1914).

23 DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Una reflexión del Día del Trabajo del Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica: La participación se realiza ante todo con la dedicación a las tareas cuya responsabilidad personal se asume: por la atención prestada a la educación de su familia, por la responsabilidad en su trabajo, el hombre participa en el bien de los demás y de la sociedad (#1914).

K OF C FOOD DRIVE

FROM THE VOCATIONS OFFICE

Project Miriam

Project Miriam, a discernment event for single young women up to 35 years old, will be held Oct. 17 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at St. Mary Cathedral in Austin. This is an opportunity to encounter joyful sisters from various religious communities, hear their discernment stories and learn about their communities. Their sharing and guidance will shed light on each participant's discernment journey. Mass will be celebrated and there will be time spent in prayer and adoration. Adjustments to the format may be made due to changing circumstances related to COVID-19. Visit the Austin Vocations website for more information and registration or contact the Vocation Office at (512) 949-2430.

Discernment Dinners

The Vocations Office is hosting monthly discernment dinners in a few locations throughout the diocese for those considering the priesthood. The first dinners of the semester are right around the corner! If you (or someone you know) have ever wondered whether God might be calling you to be a priest, these dinners are for you. Come for fellowship with others who are considering the priesthood and for discernment guidance from experienced priests.
