Amoris Laetitia

On Love in the Family

THE JOY OF LOVE

The following is a series of comments and excerpts from the Apostolic Exhortation Amoris Laetitia. Chapter six: “some pastoral perspectives” (199-258) In the sixth chapter the Pope treats various pastoral perspectives that are aimed at forming solid and fruitful families according to God’s plan. The chapter uses the Final Reports of the two Synods and the catecheses of Pope Francis and Pope John Paul II extensively. It reiterates that families should not only be evangelized, they should also evangelize. The Pope regrets “that ordained ministers often lack the training needed to deal with the complex problems currently facing families”. On the one hand, the psycho-affective formation of seminarians needs to be improved, and families need to be more involved in formation for ministry; and on the other hand, “the experience of the broad oriental tradition of a married clergy could also be drawn upon”. The Pope then deals with the preparation of the engaged for marriage; with the accompaniment of couples in the first years of married life, including the issue of responsible parenthood; and also with certain complex situations and crises, knowing that “each crisis has a lesson to teach us; we need to learn how to listen for it with the ear of the heart”. Some causes of crisis are analysed, among them a delay in maturing affectively. Mention is furthermore made of accompanying abandoned, separated or divorced persons. The Exhortation stresses the importance of the recent reform of the procedures for marriage annulment. It highlights the suffering of children in situations of conflict and concludes: “Divorce is an evil and the increasing number of divorces is very troubling. Hence, our most important pastoral task with regard to families is to strengthen their love, helping to heal wounds and working to prevent the spread of this drama of our times”. It then touches on the situations of a marriage between a Catholic and a Christian of another denomination (mixed marriages), and between a Catholic and someone of another religion (disparity of cult). Regarding families with members with homosexual tendencies, it reaffirms the necessity to respect them and to refrain from any unjust discrimination and every form of aggression or violence. The last, pastorally poignant part of the chapter, “When death makes us feel its sting”, is on the theme of the loss of dear ones and of widowhood.

SOBRE EL AMOR EN LA FAMILIA

Cada semana quiero citar y comentar sobre este

Exhortación Apostólica del Papa Francisco.

Capítulo sexto: “Algunas perspectivas pastorales” En el sexto capítulo el Papa afronta algunas vías pastorales que orientan para construir familias sólidas y fecundas según el plan de Dios. En esta parte la Exhortación hace un largo recurso a las Relaciones conclusivas de los dos Sínodos y a las catequesis del Papa Francisco y de Juan Pablo II. Se confirma que las familias son sujeto y no solamente objeto de evangelización. El Papa señala que “a los ministros ordenados les suele faltar formación adecuada para tratar los complejos problemas actuales de las familias” Si por una parte es necesario mejorar la formación psico-afectiva de los seminaristas e involucrar más a las familias en la formación al ministerio, por otra “puede ser útil (...) también la experiencia de la larga tradición oriental de los sacerdotes casados” Después el Papa afronta el tema de guiar a los novios en el camino de la preparación al matrimonio, de acompañar a los esposos en los primeros años de vida matrimonial (incluido el tema de la paternidad responsable), pero también en algunas situaciones complejas y en particular en las crisis, sabiendo que “cada crisis esconde una buena noticia que hay que saber escuchar afinando el oído del corazón”. Se analizan algunas causas de crisis, entre las cuales una maduración afectiva retrasada. Entre otras cosas se habla también del acompañamiento de las personas abandonadas, separadas y divorciadas y se subraya la importancia de la reciente reforma de los procedimientos para el reconocimiento de los casos de nulidad matrimonial. Se pone de relieve el sufrimiento de los hijos en las situaciones de conflicto y se concluye: “El divorcio es un mal, y es muy preocupante el crecimiento del número de divorcios. Por eso, sin duda, nuestra tarea pastoral más importante con respecto a las familias, es fortalecer el amor y ayudar a sanar las heridas, de manera que podamos prevenir el avance de este drama de nuestra época”. Se tocan después las situaciones de matrimonios mixtos y de aquellos con disparidad de culto, y las situaciones de las familias que tienen en su interior personas con tendencia homosexual, confirmando el respeto en relación a ellos y el rechazo de toda injusta discriminación y de toda forma de agresión o violencia. Pastoralmente preciosa es la parte final del capítulo; “Cuando la muerte planta su aguijón”, sobre el tema de la pérdida de las personas queridas y la viudez.
