CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

Parishes exist without Catholic schools, with the exception of Transfiguration, all our neighboring parishes no longer have parish schools and Transfiguration is a regional school. We choose to maintain our school as a parish school. In a sense you can say that one of the primary missions of our parish is to evangelize through Our Lady of Mount Carmel School. I have come to experience that our School is a family that imparts knowledge and a love of the faith to our youngest members. Sr. Mary Stephen and the Religious of the Divine Compassion continue to do a phenomenal mission of maintains a high level of education in conjunction with the tenets of our Catholic faith. While I may not be a Mountie, I am proud to be the pastor of such a great School. The proof is our dedicated faculty, alumni, students and families. Fr. Bob
