Pope Francis – A Man Of His Word

Fr. Augustine and I saw the Film at the local movie theater and I recommend it as an opportunity to spend time with a congenial Pastor. – Fr. Bob
In his review Steve Pound comments that he likes "Pope Francis" because it simply presents the man as he is, with a simplicity befitting the pope's own demeanor. It's not going to make converts out of anybody — I was raised Catholic, I'm definitely not one anymore and all the movie did was convince me that the pope is a good man.

Then again, Pope Francis is a healer, not a proselytizer. And Wenders knows enough to stand back and let him say his piece and make his peace.

INSIDE "HEAVENLY BODIES: FASHION AND THE CATHOLIC IMAGINATION"

Get a behind-the-scenes look at the creation of Heavenly Bodies: Fashion and the Catholic Imagination, the largest exhibition The Costume Institute at The Metropolitan Museum of Art has ever done, opening May 10, 2018 in both The Met Fifth Avenue and The Met Cloisters. The Costume Institute's spring 2018 exhibition will feature a dialogue between fashion and religious artworks from The Met collection to examine the relationship between creativity and the religious imagination.

"God knows we need him in more than the abstract. We need skin! That is why he chose to become incarnate in it. But he didn't shed his earthly skin after 33 years; once enfleshed, he has remained in skin. We are his body now." Fr. Ron Rolheiser, OMI

NEWLY CONFIRMED IN THEIR OWN WORDS

The Following are excerpts from Letters from the Newly Confirmed teenagers to Fr. Bob about why they wish to be confirmed.

"But the one thing that I have to do before I take this sacrament is to forgive people who did me wrong and the people that I have wronged." Y.A.
"I believe that all things happen for a reason. God has helped me this past year." G.P.
