FOURTEENTH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR B

Ezekiel 2: 2-5 Ezekiel is called by God to speak to the Israelites. The prophet gives witness to this rebellious people that he speaks for God.

II Corinthians 12: 7-10 St. Paul recognizes that God has tested him through his afflictions so that God's power might reach perfection. Our weaknesses, likewise can be the opportunity for divine grace.

Mark 6: 1-6 Our Lord is met with the unbelief of his own townspeople. It affects him so much that he can only work a few miracles. Such is the fate of the true prophet.

Discussion Question: How are we called to be prophetic in our own families and communities?

Commento: L'esperienza del rifiuto della Parola è una delle costanti della missione di Ezechiele, di Paolo e di Gesù. Tuttavia il credente deve continuare a seminare la Parola.

Comentario: Si Jesús fracasó, decían ellos, cuánto más podían ellos esperar un fracaso! Pero. dice la comunidad de Marcos, no es culpa suya, se debe a la falta de fe de los demás. - A. von Rechnitz González

NEWLY CONFIRMED IN THEIR OWN WORDS

The Following are excerpts from Letters from the Newly Confirmed teenagers to Fr. Bob about why they wish to be confirmed.

“I would like to be confirmed because I want to renew my baptism but now I will understand what would be happening” A.P.

“I am eager to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation. I I have learned to behave through God’s eyes throughout my classes and community/service. I have learned to cherish things such as family, health, education and religion.” A.C.

“I would like to gain the gift of the Holy Spirit just like the rest of my family.” E.B.

“I have participated in service for others in my community or church parish who need help. I believe that I will continue to serve others and attend mass after I receive the sacrament of Confirmation.” C.V.

“I believe that I should be confirmed because it is an important part of the Catholic life. And I would be following the path that God wants me to take. I take the name Joseph because my grandfather and my dad chose Joseph as their Confirmation name.” D.T.
