Sunday's Reading 26th Sunday of the Year C

Amos 6:1,4-7 The Prophet cries out against the excesses of the wealthy and the mistreatment of the poor.

I Timothy 6:11-16 The Christian community is encouraged to follow the gospel in living simple and devout lives, committed to loving God and neighbor.

Luke 16: 19-31 The parable of Lazarus and the rich man is a powerful commentary on greed and materialism. How we care for the poorer members of society does matter.

Discussion Question: What are we doing for the needy and oppressed in our community? What more can we be doing?

Comento: Impegnandosi a lottare per la giustizia non compiono solo un'opera filantropica ma anche un atto religioso. - G. Ravasi

Comentario del domingo "Viene el tiempo, dice Jesús, en el cual las riquezas no van a ser el valor a tener en cuenta y en el que el valor a tener en cuenta es el amor; el que quiera estar preparado para el tiempo que viene, dice Jesús, debe invertir las riquezas para adquirir lo que si tendrá valor cuando las riquezas no lo tengan: el amor." A. von Rehnitz González

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL

The New Pastoral Council year has begun. Several members will be going off the Council which means that we are looking for parishioners to place their name in consideration for the Council. At the beginning of November there will be a selection process at the 11:00 am Mass on the First Sunday for the new representatives. The selection process is according to the tradition of the selection of Mathias in the Acts of the Apostles.

This year I have asked the Pastoral Council to focus on developing an Evangelization committee and reaching out to members of our community who felt distant from the church of have not yet encountered the Risen Lord. If you are interested in hosting a informal gathering at your home, leave word at the Parish Office.
