Today's readings marvel at how fortunate we are to be in a relationship with God. In the first reading, Moses enumerates all the wonderful things that God has done for them, from creation to the rescue from Egypt, to the gift of the Promised Land. Saint Paul writes that we are God's sons and daughters by adoption. Finally, in the last line of Matthew's Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples, "I am with you always, until the end of the age."

Las lecturas de hoy se maravillan por lo afortunados que somos de tener una relación con Dios. En la primera lectura Moisés enumera todas las obras maravillosas que Dios ha hecho por ellos, desde la creación y el rescate de Egipto hasta el don de la tierra prometida. San Pablo nos escribe que somos hijos e hijas de Dios por adopción. Y finalmente, en el último renglón del Evangelio de Mateo, Jesús le dice a sus discípulos: "Yo estoy con ustedes todos los días, hasta el final del mundo".
