While still in the womb, John the Baptist was called to prepare the people for the coming of the Lord. We hear today from Jeremiah or Isaiah, two prophets also called by the LORD before they were born. We ourselves were not called by God in such a dramatic way. Yet by virtue of our baptism, each of us also shares in Christ's prophetic and salvific mission. As we listen to the readings today, let us think about how we have been called.

En la primera lectura de esta tarde vemos que, al igual que Jeremías, Juan el Bautista recibió su llamado de Dios desde antes de su nacimiento. Tanto Jeremías como Juan sufrieron al cumplir su misión y ninguno de los dos vio en su vida terrenal el plan de salvación de Dios llegar a su cumplimiento. Por medio del Bautismo Dios nos ha llamado a preparar el camino de Jesús en este mundo, y en la segunda lectura san Pedro nos desafía a amar a Jesús y creer en él aunque aún no lo hayamos visto. Aunque Zacarías, el padre de Juan el Bautista, dudó, la promesa de Dios se cumplió con el nacimiento de Juan. La promesa de Dios también se cumplirá para nosotros, según nos asegura Pedro cuando dice que estamos seguros de alcanzar la salvación de nuestras almas.

Beginning Experience Weekend

"Are you or someone you know divorced, widowed, or separated and hurting? The July 13-15, 2018 Beginning Experience Weekend Retreat will help you deal with the grief process. It offers an opportunity for turning the pain of loss into a growth experience. People in any stage of life, male or female, who have experienced such a loss can benefit from the retreat. For more information on how we can help, visit <http://www.sanantoniobe.org/>, call 210-478-0690, or e-mail: sanantoniobe@yahoo.com."
