Elijah Cup

We are beginning an Elijah Cup program at Sacred Heart! Each week, a different family will be called from the assembled People of God, entrusted with an Elijah Cup, and asked to pray for vocations throughout the week. The word "vocation" comes from the Latin word vocare, meaning, "to call." The Elijah Cup will be a constant reminder that God calls all of us – no matter how young or old! Vocations to the priesthood, religious life, the permanent diaconate, married life, or to a single life dedicated to service to God are precious and require great prayer. That's why we need your help! Please email Fr. Matt (mjaneczko@sacredheartyonkers.org) or call the Parish Office to reserve a Sunday. It's easy: come to Mass, receive the Cup, and pray as a family!

My Dear Friends in Christ,

Over the past several weeks, I have had the privilege of introducing several Capuchins who will be ministering in our Parish. In case you have missed any of them, I thought it might be helpful to (re) introduce them.

Fr. Robert Abbatiello: Fr. Robert will be helping at weekday and weekend Masses. He is a son of Sacred Heart, having graduated from both our grade and high schools. Fr. Robert will also be serving on the newly formed Board of the High School. He serves the friars as the Vicar Provincial of the Province.

Fr. Michael Banks: Fr. Michael is a former Provincial and is currently in residence at Saint Clare Friary. He will be assisting by hearing confessions from time to time.

Br. Richard Therrien: Br. Richard began his Bible Study (a huge success!) this past Tuesday. It will meet every Tuesday at 10:00 am in the Parish Office. Br. Richard boasts a long history as an educator.

We are most grateful that both Fr. Senan Taylor and Fr. Michael Connolly will continue to offer Masses both on the weekends and weekdays. They are co-directors of the program at Saint Clare Friary. Sacred Heart continues to be blessed by Br. Roger's presence, Fr. Christopher's gentle spirit greeting people after Mass, and Fr. John's return to Sacred Heart!

The Capuchins have been at Sacred Heart for 125 years: it is truly our joy to serve all of you!

Please pray for me, and know I'm always praying for you,
 Fr. Matt

Bible Study

A Bible Study Group has formed under the direction of Br. Richard Therrien, OFM Cap. First meeting this past Tuesday was a great success! Join them on Tuesdays at 10:00 am in the Parish Office. please contact Br. Richard at (914) 375 – 8258 for more information.
