Saint Mary Cathedral is located on 10th Street, between Brazos Street and San Jacinto Boulevard in downtown Austin. Saint Mary Cathedral shares a parking garage which is available for week day and weekend parking. The entrance to Capitol Towers Parking Garage is located off San Jacinto Boulevard. Visitors attending Mass on week days may obtain a parking token from the Cathedral Office. You may park in any of the unmarked parking spaces--usually located on the 6th floor and up.

Cathedral Parking Map (not to scale):

It is recommended that you park in the Capitol Tower Parking Garage behind the Cathedral. The entrance is located on San Jacinto Street right after the alley between 10th and 9th Street.

You must have your ticket validated to exit without paying.

Press the button at the Entrance Gate Kiosk upon entering to be issued a parking ticket.

You may park on the 5th floor where the reserve parking signs say St. Mary Cathedral or anywhere there are no reserved parking signs.

- Weekends Mass and Weddings: take the elevator to 2nd floor. You come out in the school gym.
- You can validate your parking ticket upon arriving or leaving using the machine located just outside the door leading into the gym.
- Streets surrounding the Cathedral on all sides are lined with parking meters, which are free Monday-Wednesday after 6:00 p.m. and all day on Sunday. Please read the parking restrictions on the meters before leaving your vehicle.
