Memorandum of Understanding

CODE OF CONDUCT

In order to ensure a safe, secure and respectful environment, a student participant is expected to behave in a manner which reflects Christian virtue and Gospel values. Any behavior which is contrary to the teachings of Jesus Christ, will not be tolerated. Appropriate disciplinary actions will be taken by the Camp Director which may include the immediate dismissal of the student participant.

Inappropriate behaviors include but are not limited to bullying, harassment, intimidation, threats to staff and/or student participants, and vandalism.

For safety reasons, student participants are permitted to carry their own cell phone, but may not use during the day. The cell phone may be confiscated if this policy is violated. No other electronic devices are permitted.
