Wow! And what a night it was! We had an excellent turnout. The pizza's were many, varied and delicious along with the salad and all the additional snacks and desserts. The white elephant auction was called by Stephen Wolney this year and he very quickly got us into the spirit of the bidding. Herman did not sit by and watch for long. He jumped into the bidding activity with his usual gusto! Almost $200 was raised for the charities selected by the fraternity . Many thanks to all who came out and for those who made it all happen especially: Tammy, Mike, and Tim who did the ordering, cooking and so much of the work to make it a fun night to remember.

Lent Soup Supper:

The annual Lenten Soup Supper hosted by the St Anthony of Padua Fraternity will be at the St Austin's campus on February 22nd. Set up 5:00 PM Mark your calendars.

Thank You to the Alice Milliren Family:

Recently a generous check in donation to the St Anthony of Padua Fraternity was given to us by Sue Larson in behalf of the Alice Milliren Family. The council has not yet decided how the proceeds will be used but we thank the family so much for the generosity and the thought. Alice was very generous to us all and to the fraternity with her time and her treasures. We miss her so very much but we remember her in the stories we share with one another and in our fraternity prayers.

Thank you again!

Gospel Sharing : Luke 4 1-13

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days, to be tempted by the devil.

He ate nothing during those days, and when they were over he was hungry.

The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread."

Jesus answered him, "It is written, One does not live on bread alone."

Then he took him up and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a single instant.

The devil said to him,

"I shall give to you all this power and glory; for it has been handed over to me, and I may give it to whomever I wish.

All this will be yours, if you worship me."

Jesus said to him in reply,

"It is written:

You shall worship the Lord, your God, and him alone shall you serve."

Then he led him to Jerusalem, made him stand on the parapet of the temple, and said to him,

"If you are the Son of God,

throw yourself down from here, for it is written:

He will command his angels concerning you, to guard you, and:

With their hands they will support you, lest you dash your foot against a stone."

Jesus said to him in reply,

"It also says,

You shall not put the Lord, your God, to the test."

When the devil had finished every temptation, he departed from him for a time.

Discussion:

Have you ever been led by the Spirit to a personal "desert?" What happened there?

Why do you think "the devil had finished every temptation?"

Do you think Jesus was truly tempted by what the devil had to offer? Why?

I do not pray for them alone; I pray also for those who will believe in me through their word that they may be holy by being one as we are. And I desire, Father, to have them in my company where I am to see this glory of mine in your kingdom." (Jesus as quoted in the Prologue to the Rule of the Secular Franciscan Order.)
