Living Water

In today's Gospel, Jesus and the Samaritan woman seem to be talking about drinking water. But it's about more than that - for her and for us.

We never learn the woman's name, maybe because she really stands for all of us in some way. She was a person on the margins of the society in which she lived. Jesus reaches out to her, as He does to us. Jesus knew her past, as He knows ours. But what interests Him now is our future.

The well was the place where people gathered. In a sense, the church is our well. Here, we gather with other Christians. Here, we too can meet the Lord. Through the liturgy, the Lord speaks the truth of who we are, what we have done with our lives, and what we can become if we follow Him.

Jesus knew the Samaritan woman needed something more than drinking water in her life. He gradually leads her from her need of drinking water to show her the need that she has for a living, flowing, spiritual refreshment, which we know as grace or the Holy Spirit. By pursuing the needs of the body, we can forget the very real needs of our soul. Like the Samaritan woman, we too must face the truth about ourselves in an encounter with Jesus Christ, confess our sins and come to know Jesus as Savior in our life.

The season of Lent calls us to be like Moses in the first reading - to strike open the rock that blocks the flow of God's grace into our life.

Strike the rock...

- ...of anger, to let in the peace of Christ!
- ...of lust, to let in an appreciation of our human dignity!
- ...of envy, to let in the grace of gratitude!
- ...of gluttony or addiction, to release the grace of temperance!
- ...of sloth or apathy, to reclaim spiritual energy and enthusiasm!
- ...of pride, to unleash the grace of honesty!
- ...of greed, to uncover spiritual wealth in Christ!
- ...through penance and confession, by changing the way we live!

If we don't take the call of Lent to heart, then we can be like someone who is thirsty and reads about water, listens to talks about water, sees beautiful banners about water, hangs pictures at home that show water, collects books about water, sings songs about water, gathers with others to hear sermons about water, joins discussion groups about water, hears stories about those who have found water, until finally one day, he or she dies of thirst. What happened? He or she never drank the water.

Jesus has living water that will bring life to your life.

COMMUNITY / COMUNIDAD

A Note of Thanks from Deacon Al Opdenaker

"As many of you know, I have been away from my duties as Deacon at St. Rose since early November, due to cervical spine surgery and some unfortunate consequences following that otherwise successful operation. While I am not yet able to return to my duties, I would like to express my most sincere gratitude for all the prayers and other support the members of the parish have given me and my family during the long recovery period. I was very grateful to Deacon Leo for bringing me the Blessed Sacrament in the hospital and in rehabilitation and for being there to talk. I also appreciated the visits from Fathers Mateo and Justin, both of whom brought great comfort whenever they came. I also was very touched by the efforts of Mrs. Sood, who organized the very fine cooks that brought many fine dinners to the house for my daughter and granddaughter while I was in the hospital. While my recovery is going so much slower than I would like, I hope that someday very soon I will be able to serve the many members of the parish as I did before this situation arose. God Bless you all."

Deacon Al

EDUCATION / EDUCACIÓN

What Are Scrutiny Rites?

On the 3rd, 4th and 5th Sundays of Lent, we celebrate the Scrutiny Rites for our Elect who are preparing for the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil. These Rites are central to the season of Lent. They help the Elect prepare for baptism and remind us of our baptism. They are meant to "uncover and heal all that is weak and sinful." Further, they bring out and strengthen all that is "upright, strong, and good" (RCIA, 141). We pray with certainty, knowing that God's power and grace will overcome every evil—even death itself.

Thomas Merton Study: Bridges to Contemplative Living

Sundays, 10:00-11:00am, Church Parlor. Join this small group to study Thomas Merton using the Bridges to Contemplative Living series of short readings. Through contemplative dialogue, reflect on personal experiences related to the themes of the readings, discuss how they relate to your life today, and contemplate how to apply them in daily living. Drop-ins welcome! INFO: Lurline Peeler, lurlinep@verizon.net; Jim Vidas, javajimv@gmail.com.

STEWARDSHIP / CORRESPONSABILIDAD

Annual Stream Cleanup in Gaithersburg

Sat., April 8, 9:00-11:00am. Join the Eco-Action Team for this annual event! Meet at Long Draught Branch at Rabbitt Road. Dress appropriately for wet ground and some briars. Tools for reaching litter would be useful. Other supplies will be provided. INFO & REGISTRATION: Pat Cuff, pmcuff@aol.com

Planning Ahead for Your Easter Feast?

Though we are practicing our Lenten fasting, planning for our Easter feasts may also be in the works. We may make special dishes and invite family and guests to our celebratory meals. If you don't normally participate in our Food Certificate Program, consider trying it out now! You could also make it part of your Lenten almsgiving by purchasing an extra grocery card for a needy individual or family, or donating it back to the parish for St. Martin's Food Pantry. To participate, purchase grocery cards (Giant, Shoppers Food Warehouse and Whole Foods Market) from the parish at face value, then redeem them at the grocery store for the same value. St. Rose then receives a rebate, at no additional cost to you! Food Certificates are sold after Masses on Sundays and from the Parish Office during business hours.

TIME & TALENT SALUTE

Liz Sullivan

Liz has served the Lord at St. Rose of Lima as Parish Bookkeeper since 2011. She is now "retiring" to care for her mother. Her conscientious, faithful and dedicated service has truly been a gift for our community. She has been a model of good stewardship. We wish her many blessings as she moves on to the next stage of her journey, and bid her a fond farewell.
