CHRIST IS RISEN! HAPPY EASTER!

As your Parochial Administrator, I join Deacon Abraham Santiago in wishing you and your families a Blessed and Happy

Easter, the feast of the resurrection of Jesus Christ in body and soul and thus the apex of the Christian year. The acclamation of "Alleluia" is heard again, the Gloria is sung anew, and deep purple is put away in favor of bright colors and many flowers for joy of the Resurrection! Also, our evening Spanish Mass and subsequent Holy Hour on Friday nights will resume on Easter Friday, April 1st, at 7 p.m. in the church.

Easter Sunday is so important that the Church celebrates this event liturgically as an Octave (eight-day period), concluding next Sunday, which is Divine Mercy Sunday. We invite you to join us at the Holy Hour as well as at Mass on that special conclusion to the Octave of Easter! The greater liturgical season of Easter, which includes the solemnity of Ascension Thursday on May 5 (itself a holy day of obligation), lasts 50 days until Pentecost Sunday, which this year falls on May 15.

We remind our parishioners and readers that the Easter duty binds all Catholics who have made their First Holy Communion to receive Holy Communion at least once a year. In the United States, we should meet our Easter duty no later than Trinity Sunday, which this year falls on May 22. If you have failed to go to Confession during Lent or Holy Week, then please avail yourself of the Sacrament of Penance as soon as possible so that you may receive Our Lord's Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity in a state of grace, to your benefit in body and soul, and to fulfill one of our duties to God and His Church.

So that you may enjoy today with your families and friends, a Holy Hour will not be held today. Nor will the Soup Kitchen be open today. Smile and laugh today, for Christ is risen! "By death, He conquered death and to those in the tombs, He granted life!" (from the Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom).

Sincerely yours in the Risen Christ,

Rev. Fr. Arthur F. Rojas

NOTE: Tomorrow, the Rectory will be closed to the public for Easter Monday and public Mass will not be offered.

¡CRISTO HA RESUCITADO! ¡FELICES PASCUAS FLORIDAS!

Con gusto me uno con el Diácono Santiago para desear a ustedes y a sus familias Felices Pascuas Floridas, la fiesta de la resurrección de Jesucristo nuestro Señor en cuerpo y alma y el apogeo del año litúrgico. Cantamos de nuevo el <<Aleluya>> y el Gloria. El morado sobrio de Cuaresma se cambia por colores brillantes y muchas flores por la dicha de la Resurrección. Además, comenzamos de nuevo la Misa Hispana y la Hora Santa de los viernes este viernes, 1ero de abril a las 19h. en el templo.

La suma importancia de esta fiesta nos anima de celebrarla litúrgicamente por ocho días ("Octava Pascual"), concluyendo el próximo domingo con el Domingo de la Divina Misericordia. Les invitamos encarecidamente a la Hora Santa del próximo domingo. La temporada litúrgica de Pascua, que cuenta con la solemnidad de Jueves de la Ascensión del 5 de mayo (que es día de precepto) en 40 días, dura un total de 50 días, hasta Domingo de Pentecostés, que cae este año el 15 de mayo.

Recordamos a nuestros feligreses que el Deber Pascual obliga a todo católico que haya hecho su Primera Comunión a comulgarse por lo menos cada año. En los EE.UU., hay que cumplir con este deber al más tardar el Domingo de la Santísima Trinidad, cuya fecha en el 2015 es el 22 de mayo. Si haya faltado confesarse durante Cuaresma o Semana Santa, favor aprovecharse de este sacramento cuanto antes para poder recibir el Cuerpo y la Sangre, el Alma y la Divinidad de Nuestro Señor en estado de gracia, para su beneficio de cuerpo y alma, cumpliendo con un deber nuestro con Dios y su Iglesia.

No habrá Hora Santa esta tarde para que puedan gozar de este magno día con sus familias y amigos. Tampoco habrán ventas de golosinas o Comedor Parroquial. Hoy es para sonreír y celebrar, puesto que Cristo ha resucitado. <<El Señor resucitó, cantemos con alegría. Demos gracias al Señor, aleluya.>> (del Aleluya, el Señor Resucitó o el Aleluya Hondureño)

Reciban un abrazo paterno y pascual del

R.P. Arthur Fernando Rojas Ruiz

OJO: Se cerrará mañana la Casa Cural al público por el Lunes de Pascua. Tampoco se ofrecerá Misa pública en la capilla.

Saint Joseph's Neighborhood Association

Our civic group invites you to its meeting on Wednesday, April 6 at 7 p.m. in the first floor boardroom of our school building. At a time when there is development happening in our neighborhood, it is prudent and important to make our voices heard.

WE COUNT ON YOUR EASTER DONATIONS

Thus, we hope that you will continue your extraordinary generosity for the Easter collection, for which we will accept envelopes throughout the Octave of Easter, up to and including next Sunday (Divine Mercy Sunday), which concludes the Octave.

Also, for your intentions (living or dead persons, thanksgiving, etc.), sponsorships of the Paschal Candle, sanctuary lamp, altar breads and flowers for Easter Masses still are available to individuals or parish groups and will be published in the bulletin next Sunday. Furthermore, there are intentions open for Masses in April and the rest of the year. Call 963-0730 or talk to Fr. Rojas.
